Parents Have Final Say in Acalanes District CD Plans

"Parents with children attending schools within the confines of the Acalanes High School District will have the final say in whether or not their children will be evacuated or walk home from school in case of enemy attack or disaster.''

The statement was made yesterday by Art Dambacher, Civil Defense coordinator for the high school district and principal of the evening division of Acalanes High School.

THE SCHOOL superintendents of the Lafayette, Orinda and Walnut Creek Elementary Districts and the Acalanes High School District met again Friday to continue to work on civil defense evacuation plans for students of their districts.

A letter from the school districts will be sent to parents in January detailing disaster evacuation proposals and alternatives based on county civil defense office recommendations.

All parents, after reading the details of the proposed disaster plan, will be asked to state if their student should be transported to civil defense office designated evacuation centers in the eastern end of the county; or, if their student should walk from school under supervision to the student's residential area.

IN AN EARLIER questionnaire on parent preference for evacuation transportation, the majority of the parents who responded preferred evacuation. However, school officials noted, not all parents responded.

Complete details of the alternate proposals will be forwarded in the January letter. Students will be transported eastward under civil defense office direction or they will walk to their residential area according to the parent's preference for his child.

The superintendents will meet again in January to discuss final particulars of the evacuation plan. The plan will be basically the same but will have to vary in some respects because of the child's age or the geographical location in which he lives, explained Dambacher.

"The questionnaire which was sent out some months ago was the basis on which we have been compiling our current evacuation plan," Dambacher pointed out.

"THE ENTIRE PLAN has been under study for several years. Just when the plan will be made public is not known at the present time but there are a good many facets of the evacuation system which will be studied by the individual superintendents prior to the public release of the plan," he continued.

Parents who wish to offer suggestions or comments concerning the plan were asked to contact the individual superintendents of the Acalanes High School District, Lafayette Elementary School District, Walnut Creek School District or Orinda Union School District.

"All phases of the plan will be carefully studied before a final decision is reached," concluded Dambacher.

Results of the questionnaire distributed to parents earlier in the year will beannounced at a future date, according to Acalanes officials.

Sheriff Denies He Ever Sought Salary Increase

Contra Costa Sheriff Harry A. Brown flatly denied ever asking for a pay increase or asking the Contra Costa Board of Supervisors for permission to raise livestock on the county prison farm.

In a statement to The Sun made yesterday by Brown he said, "There is not one iota of truth in that I have asked for a raise, that I have ever sought after a raise or that I want a raise.

"The truth of the matter is that my undersheriff, John Jagard, saw a clip in a newspaper that the undersheriff of Alameda County was given a salary increase which would make that undershiriff equal in salary with me," explained Brown.

"Jagard, without speaking to me of the matter, went to visit his personal friend, George Miller Jr., state senator, to see if anything could be done to increase my salary," Brown continued.

"The first I ever head that I was 'demanding' an increase was when I read it in a Richmond newspaper."

In the matter of the four steers on the county prison farm, Brown said, "I never asked whether or not I could buy and raise cattle and I was never turned down. I was allocated $3500 for a livestock program. This livestock program was to include poultry. Somehow, this livestock program was interpreted to be solely a hog program by the board of supervisors.

"THE BOARD AND the county administrator seem to think that such a program would hurt businessmen. We are not in competition with anyone and not raising livestock to make a profit. We want to rehabilitate men," he stated.

"Nearly every county has an agricultural program of some type. Where you have idle men in confinement you're bound to have trouble.

"The board speaks of good business, yet they lease grazing land at the prison farm for 75 cents an acre. This type of grazing land is worth at least $6 to $7 an acre, he explained.

Yesterday a meeting was called of the members of the board of supervisors; the county administrator, Desmond Teeter; Brown and his attorneys, the firm of Dinkelspiel and Dinkelspiel, and county auditor Howard McNamer. Purpose of the conference was to discuss the County - Sheriff hassle of past months.

A meeting between Teeter and Brown was arranged by Francis Collins, district attorney. The meeting will be Monday in Brown's office to seek a settlement to the controversy.

CCCSD Ready To Move into New Offices

Finishing touches have been put on the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District's new office building in Walnut Creek, and the district personnel should be moved in by Monday.

The new $113,890 structure, located at 1250 Springbrook Road, will provide 5300 square feet of floor space and a large paved yard for maintenance trucks.

This is space and facility that was sorely needed at the district's old office at 1822 Mt. Diablo Boulevard. The old quarters contained little more than half the floor space provided by new facility.

The real estate firm of Ken Richardson has already begun to move into the old CCCSD building. Richardson bought the building for $62,500.

Eight years of work will be left behind as the CCCSD pulls up its roots. The structure was built in 1948 by the firm of Anderson and Haugland. Anderson also handled construction of the new offices.

At a meeting last week, the district tentatively agreed to annex 358 acres of East Bay Municipal Utility District property near Orinda.

The directors instructed Attorney to prepare a letter agreeing to the annexation, conditional upon payment of the standard $277 per acre annexation charge in that area. This would amount to approximately $98,000.

THE DISTRICT will stipulate that if any of the properties in the annexation are sold or disposed of by EBMUD to private buyers, the transactions will be recorded immediately on county tax rolls.

The property lies between the Sleepy Hollow and Upper Happy Valley districts and Bear Creek Road. It is in the San Pablo Dam watershed.

EBMUD requested the annexation and said the land is to be offered for public sale only with assurance that sewer service is available.

Moms Arrange For Santa to Visit Kiddies

Santa Claus has added four of Orinda's schools to his list of pre-Christmas stops.

By special arrangement with the Mothers Club he will visit each of the kindergarten classes next Tuesday, the last day before vacation.

It is also reported that he will be armed with a full quota of candy canes.

The Mothers Club has also added to the Christmas atmosphere by donating trees to all the schools. The mothers will continue their traditional gifts of candy for the secretarial staff of the schools.

Pupil Vacation Start Will Be On Wednesday

Tuesday will be the last day of school before Christmas vacation, throughout Central Contra Costa County.

The 2-week vacation will start Wednesday. Schools will reopen on Wednesday, January 2.

This schedule will be in effect in the Acalanes High School District; Mt. Diablo Unified School District; Lafayette, Orinda, Walnut Creek, Canyon and Moraga School Districts, and at East Contra Costa Junior College.

New Slate of Officers Elected By Orindans, Inc.

New officers were elected and plans made for the new year at the recent meeting of the Board of Directors of Orindans, Incorporated, the improvement association for Moraga Estates.

Elected president was Clifford C. Rea, of 67 Orchard Road. Ronald Larsen, 15 Northwood Drive, was chosen vice-president.

Robert Karplus, of 57 Overhill Drive, was appointed by the new president to be the association's Civic Affairs Representative to the Orinda Association, with Frank Hiller, 15 Brookside Road, selected as alternate.

President Rea re-appointed to the standing Plans Approval Committee H. Stewart Kimball, 19 Owl Hill Road, and Bernard S. Ginsburg of Southwood Court. Paul Vashell, of 4 Vashell Way, was also appointed to the committee.

Appointed secretary-treasurer pro-tem, was Karplus. Comprising the Board of Directors are: James H. Allen, Hillery, Karplus, Larsen, Ross Mainwaring, Rea and Vashell.

PACKAGES, PACKAGES . . . and still more packages, plus avalanches of letters and postcards —that's the story these days at the Orinda Post Office. From behind a pile of packages Joseph Johnston, (right), clerk at the Orinda Post Office, peeks out at Joseph F. Giusto, carrier. This scene, typical of the holiday-season rush, is additional reason for you to do your Christmas mailing early (which means pronto) if you haven't already done it, Postmaster Laura Mallary points out. To handle the increasing amount of mail, hours of service are being extended — schedules include: Tomorrow and on Saturday, December 22, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.; this Sunday, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Teenagers to Form Clubs; Join Recreation Program

Teenagers from Miramonte High School met with Orinda Recreation Director Frank Isola last night to make plans for formation of two high school clubs which will be incorporated into the rapidly expanding Orinda Recreation Program.

The clubs, Isola explained to the youths, would include students from the freshman and sophomore classes. Their activities, he stated, would be decided by the members.

FACILITIES available to the prospective youth groups included both social and recreaton opportunities. But the clubs, the director added, would take on added importance by engaging in community and social service.

The Miramonte groups will be formed soon, Isola said, but Orinda Receration Plans also included a youth club for 8th graders at the Pine Grove School.

This club will be formed soon after the first of the year, he added.

ALONG WITH a full slate of athletic and social events, including organized sports, games, dances, hayrides, barbecues and others, the clubs would also participate in community activities.

Sponsored by the Orinda School District, the clubs would utilize Miramonte and Pine Grove facilities.

But while teenagers are getting ready to enter the program, Orinda adults are taking full advantage of the sports and recreational activities being offered.

MEN OF THE community will gather at 8 p.m. Monday at Pine Grove to form a volleyball team and get in shape for a game with Miramonte men. This will be the second volleyball session.

According to Isoa, the "team needs players, so we want all local men to come out and play."

Another area of the program, invoving the ladies, is also finding interest and providing fun and recreation in the community . . . square dancing.

GENTS AND THEIR ladies met last Monday night at Pine Grove for a rip-roaring hoe-down, with Jack Clark calling the turns.

In fact, the square dance program so successful that "we'll have to form new dance classes after the first of the year," Isola said.

Meadows Unit To Join Diablo Highway Group

Board member Gerald Trumbly was appointed representative to the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation last week as the Moraga Meadows Association decided to join the federation.

The association board met at the home of President Vic Kingston, 30 Daryl Drive, Orinda.

Also discussed were the forthcoming membership drive and the next general membership meeting, which is to feature an interesting guest speaker.

A motion was passed that the board draft a resolution to be sent to the Board of Supervisors endorsing the supervisors' stand opposing the two-county Transit District.

Present at the meeting, aside from Kingston, were Vice-president Carl Pedersen, Treasurer Bud Leiber, Board Members Trumbly, Clyde MacDonald and Pete Pierre, and Publicity Director Pat Van Every.

A picture of a proud, smiling young fisherwomen kneeling over a fine catch of striped bass appeared in the 1957 Harnell fishing rod catalogue.

The little miss, whose picture is being viewed in fishing circles 'round the country, is 10-year-old Diane Edelin, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Edelin of 19 Valley View Drive, Orinda.

Diane, a 5th grader at Del Rey School, took her photographed limit catch out of Ramos' Fishing Resort in Martinez.

Rotary to Fete Kids Tomorrow

Christmas is coming early to Orinda youngsters this year, and one of the big pre-holiday celebrations will take place tomorrow morning at the Orinda Theater as the Rotary Club's Christmas party for local small fry gets under way at 9 a.m.

All eyes at the party, which is being held for kiddies from third grade down through pre-schoolers, will be focused on the theater stage when the "old man" himself, Santa Claus, puts in an appearance.

As is his habit, Santa will carry a bag chuck full of gifts which he will distribute to the youngtsers.

Movie cartoons and a special feature film will be other highlights of the festive morning.

Teenagers from the Wheel Club at Miramonte High School will assist Rotarians in conducting the affair.

Bird-Talk Says 'Unofficial' . . .

It's all uofficial," the Weather Bird mumbled. "Somehow, I lost my records for the past week's temperatures, so I dropped into the Orinda Filter Plant of the East Bay Municipal Utility District.

"Its thermometer registers the unofficial 9 a.m. temperature there each day and the unofficial minimum each night.

"However, the rainfall reading there is described as official—and .15 of an inch was shown at 7:30 a.m. December 6, for the preceding 24 hours."

The unofficial temperature readings were listed by the Weather Bird as follows:

	9 a.m.	Low
December 6	58	24
December 7	50	20
December 8	49	22
December 9	57	26
December 10	54	41

Couple Sues State for $9000

Damage totalling $9000 allegedly caused by excavation for the Orinda Highway Interchange in 1954 is the subject of an inverse condemnation suit filed against the state by John J. and Ferne L. Bell, of 32 Brookwood Road, Orinda.

Contractors Frederickson and Watson and M & K Corporation are named as co-defendants with the state in the suit.

The Bells, who charge that the state has refused to approve or deny their claim, say portions of their property damaged were not included in 1958 purchases for the interchange.

Excavation in May, 1954, caused the property to slip, slide, sink, give way and become useless and without value, the suit asserts.

County Sued for Flood Damage

C. A. and Fonda Winrod, of 6 Los Amigos, Orinda, have sued Contra Costa for $4500 damage allegedly done their property in last winter's floods.

The suit alleges water overflowing from an improperly designed culvert washed out two retaining walls, broke a concrete wall, washed out plants and shrubs and damaged the patio and foundations of the house.

The damages were caused by a change in the drainage system when the county repaved the intersection of Marston and Monte Vista Roads, the County Superior Court asserts.

Assembly Will Get Text Bills in 1957

Zion Elected Text Study Group Head, Policy Told

Bill Zion was elected head of a committee to study the system of state selection and printing of elementary textbooks in California at the initial meeting of the group Tuesday night in Lafayette.

Two resolutions were passed by the committee stating policy and objectives of the group. They are:

1. To urge the State Legislature to continue its investigation of state textbook adoption policy.

2. To establish a study group to make a local survey of the textbook situation in Contra Costa County.

OFFICERS ELECTED by the 30 persons present were Zion, chairman; Catherine McGuire, recording secretary; Mrs. Hal Bates, corresponding secretary; Tom Curtin, treasurer; George Gordon, Mrs. Robert T. Adams, Mrs. Mel Marshall, directors. Floyd Buchanan and William Gaskell were appointed consultants.

Other members of the steering committee are Gardom Pomeroy, Mr. and Mrs. William Benjamin, Geroge Kern, Mrs. Margaret Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Finch.

The steering committee will meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Bates, 3280 Sweet Drive, Lafayette, to formulate plans for the general meeting January 15 to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Major Gorton West, 1530 Rancho View Drive, Pleasant Hill.

Mrs. Bates urged any person interested in serving on the general committee to call her at AT 4-4205. "The three hour session was most encouraging. We have a common goal and a great deal of interest was shown at the meeting. The group is non-political and everyone is welcome to join with us at our meetings.

"Everyone should take a vital interest in the textbook problem and should be active in working toward its solution," said Mrs. Bates.

Ballot-Mailing Monday Will Follow Member-Drive

Final check-in for volunteer workers in the annual membership drive of the Orinda Association will be held from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Sunday in the rear of the main Orinda fire station on Avenida de Orinda in Orinda Village.

This was announced yesterday by Mrs. Ritchie Ward, association secretary, following an earlier check-in session at the Orinda School teachers' room Wednesday night.

Arrangements for windup of the membership drive were discussed by association directors at the Orinda School Monday night. Although a quorum for an official board meeting was lacking, the directors present were able to agree on details after Mrs. Ward had reported on drive progress to date under the direction of Alton Clough, general chairman of the drive.

Directors present were Mrs. Ward, Treasurer Marvin Baker, Frederic Sawyer and Holland DuBois.

MORE THAN 200 volunteer workers have been canvassing Orinda homes in the membership drive, which must be completed before the annual election of directors can get under way.

"If Orindans who have not been contacted by the drive workers, or who have been out of town, mail their 1957 dues to the association, Post Office Box 97, Orinda, over the weekend, so that I receive them by Monday, they will be eelgible to vote in the election," Mrs. Ward pointed out.

Dues for the calendar year of 1957 are $2 per family or $1 per individual. Mrs. Ward reiterated what Clough had already stressed — that ballots will be sent only to those who have joined the association for 1957.

"THE BALLOTS will be mailed out next Monday night," Mrs. Ward added. "Recipients will have one week in which to return the ballots. December 24 is the postmark deadline for returns."

Directors will count the ballots at their final regular meeting of the year, the night of Wednesday, December 26, at a place to be announced soon.

The four new directors will be welcomed at the first regular board meeting — on January 14. At that meeting the board will elect officers for 1957, according to Mrs. Ward.

ELECTION of four new directors, to serve 2-year terms starting in January, will be by association members (for 1957) throughout Orinda.

However, one new director will be from each of the four association geographical section where board vacancies are expiring the end of this month.

Directors whose terms are expiring are Mel Arighi (current president, who, as immediate past president, will be a director-at-large next year); Mrs. Robert Harrison, Frederick Sawyer and Paul Pollaczek.

CANDIDATES are:

Norman Cunningham and Frank Shirey, in the Tara Brook-Moraga Highlands-Broadview Tract section (where Arighi lives).

Ted Taylor, Robert Thaman and Fred Twining, in the Haciendas del Orinda-Snug Harbor-Orinda Estates section (where Mrs. Harrison lives).

Dorothy Adie, Vernon Axelson and Clarence Betz, in the Oak Springs-Encinas de Moraga-Moraga Estates-Warford Mesa section (where Sawyer lives).

Maynard Buehler, Ned de Laveaga and Arthur Elint in the Moraga Park-Moraga Glorietta-Sally-Ann Meadows-Rheem Highlands section (where Pollaczek lives).

In addition to the names of these candidates, there will be space for a write-in for each of the four geographical sections.

$190,000 School Bonds Sold

Sale of $190,000 of Orinda School District bonds to the Union Safe Deposit Bank of Stockton was transacted Tuesday by the Board of Supervisors.

The bonds were sold at 4 per cent interest, which will cost the school district $75,789.

Doyle Predicts Timely Report Criticizing System

The California Assembly next month will receive proposed legislation that would give school districts a choice between acceptable privately-published textbooks and state-printed texts and without financial penalty.

Donald Doyle predicted in an interview with The Sun Wednesday that his Sub-Committee on Education will draft bills to end the present system after an important hearing two weeks away.

The intent is that teachers would not be limited to just one state-printed "basic" text in each grade subject, as now, but could pick from a list approved by the Curriculum Commission and published either by the state or a private company.

THE BILLS WILL be the result of reports which have been assembled, more recent data which the sub-committee has been collecting in recent weeks, and the recommendations of educators whom the sub-committee will consult.

"Our report has been shown to be educationally sound, and materials collected since bear it out," said Doyle.

"Our job has been to get the facts of the matter, and we are doing that."

"And it is the duty of the committee to come up with recommendations at this session, not to wait for two more years.

"The principle involved is whether or not the local district is going to be able to make its own decisions.

"THE SUB-COMMITTEE will appoint educators to look over reports and come up with results of their own. All this will have weight.

"The feeling is that the State Department of Education's direction of the local district is detrimental."

When asked about the California Association of School Administrators' decision to "study" rather than suport a proposal for greater textbook freedom, Doyle said, "If they feel it is so important as to take two years to do something, why didn't they begin a long time ago?"

"They want to help, and we appreciate it.

"But this should have been studied by them a long time ago.

"Such a study would take two years and $50,000.

"THE LEGISLATURE is not in a position to put up $50,000 for a study by an outside group. We have a job to do now."

Doyle said that State Department of Education has already asked for certain changes in the present system, as a result of the Association's meeting in San Francisco.

The changes would remove the punitive measures like fining of teachers for infraction of the state-printing rules.

Doyle continued, "I was at the meeting on Saturday, and spoke to about 700 people about the activities of a legislative committee and the mechanics of getting a piece of legislation through.

"I assured them that when we consider educational legislation we think of the 90,000 teachers, 8000 school board members and the two and a half million children affected.

"I TALKED ABOUT a minimum salary bill for teachers which would raise the minimum pay from $3400 to $4200 per year, and cost the state about $50 millions per year.

"It will be introduced.

"We are also considering items which would allow school districts extra money for specialty items over and above the $180 for 'average daily attendance.'

"That would add about $70 millions to the budget.

"Of course, the big question is where do we get the money?

"There are many other things which must be considered, and just about every state agency is interested in a bigger budget.

"EVEN THOUGH education has first call, it must be shown where it is needed," Doyle said.

Doyle's committee began its study of the state method printing textbooks several months ago.

Doyle Group Seeks Survey By Educators

A letter asking them to review the work of Assemblyman Donald Doyle's Education subcommittee and make their own recommendations will be sent to five education leaders in California.

The result will be taken into consideration at a later meeting of his sub-committee, which is preparing legislation for submission early in 1957, Doyle said today.

He met in Sacramento Thursday with committee members Mrs. Dorothy Donahue and Walter Dahl to pick five professional educators with varied backgrounds.

The letters will be sent to Paul E. Walters, superintendent of Soquel Union Elementary School District, Dr. John C. Whinnery, president of the California Association of School Administrators, and also superintendent of the Montebello City School System.

Dr. Don T. Dawson, associate professor of education at Stanford University, and in addition a faculty member of the University of California and a faculty member of the University of University of California, Los Angeles.

They will be asked to look over information compiled by the Doyle committee, and report on their findings and recommendations by March 1.

ORINDA'S MAN OF THE YEAR COMMITTEE is now deliberating on the problem of selecting Orinda's Man — or Woman — of the Year. Committee members are Mrs. Charles Erickson, chairman; William Thurston (left) and Merle Brown. The committee's choice will be announced in the December 28 issue of The Orinda Sun. The annual award is sponsored by The Sun, but selection is entirely by the committee. Mrs. Erickson is president of the Orinda Mothers Club; Thurston is chairman of the Civic Affairs Committee of the Orinda Association; Brown is president of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce.

Orinda to Get 'Rip-Rap' Wall

Construction of a $2400 "rip-rap" wall on Moraga Highway, Orinda, was given the go-ahead Tuesday as the board of supervisors approved the County Public Works Department recommendation of the work.

The wall will be erected between Orchard Drive and Brookside Road. It will remedy an erosion condition near Moraga Valley Nursery, resulting from a replaced culvert pipe in a construction job of a couple of years ago.

According to Assistant Public Works Director Chester Smith, the wall will be 2 or 3 feet high, of sacked concrete, for a distance of about 100 feet along the bank of the creek.

Many Orindans on List In 'Man of Year' Quest

At least a dozen Orindans were being considered this week for possible selection as Orinda's Man—or Woman—of the Year.

Deliberations were by the Orinda Man of the Year Committee, consisting of Mrs. Charles Erickson, chairman; Merle Brown and William Thurston. The committee's choice of the person it believes has contributed most to Orinda's betterment during the past year or years will be announced in The Orinda Sun of December 28.

The annual Man of the Year award is sponsored by The Sun, but selection is by the committee, which welcomes suggestions. Mrs. Erickson yesterday urged that any further suggestions be mailed or phoned to her promptly.

"THE NEXT FEW days are really the last opportunity for people to get suggestions to the committee in time for consideration," she stressed.

Mrs. Erickson's address is 31 Donna Maria Way, Orinda; her phone number is DR 6-5517. Suggestions may also be given to The Sun (P.O. Box 147, Orinda — CL 4-4343), in which case they are turned over to the committee chairman.

In order to facilitate the work of the committee, Mrs. Erickson asks that suggestions be made directly to her.

Mrs. Erickson is president of the Orinda Mothers Club. Brown is President of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce. Thurston is chairman of the Civic Affairs Committee of the Orinda Association.

AMONG PERSONS being considered for the Orinda Man of the Year award are:

Robert Thaman, leader in the successful fight against location of a Veterans Administration hospital in Orinda.

Joseph Longacre, president, Educational Advisory Council; active in various community endeavors.

Mrs. Ritchie Ward, secretary, Orinda Association.

Frank Isola, physical education and recreation director, Orinda Union School District.

Perc S. Brown, general chairman, Orinda Library Building Fund.

Mrs. Donald P. Krotz, chairman, house-to-house solicitations committee, Orinda Library Building Fund.

WILLIAM KOCH, marshal, Orinda Fire Department.

Ernest I. Spiegl, member, Orinda Library Board; director, Central Contra Costa Sanitary District.

Ernest Starkman, president, Sleepy Hollow Recreational Association, which successfully completed a new community swimming pool in Sleepy Hollow.

William Pen Mott Jr., veteran civic leader; chairman, Homeowners Committee of the Orinda Association.

Mrs. Millard Simon, active in the Orinda Unit of the Concord League of Women Voters; also active in many community projects.

Offer Activities During Vacation

Christmas vacation means a closing of classes for Orinda children, but the "fun" portion of school, the playgrounds, will remain open.

Recreation Director Frank Isola has announced that beginning Wednesday all school playgrounds, with the exception of Pine Grove, will remain open through the holiday.

Playgrounds will open a wide variety of sports and crafts from Wednesday through December 22, and from the 26th through the 29th.

Experienced supervisors will be on hand at each playground from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Special trips and activities offered during the holiday recreation program will also make the days go by fast and pleasantly for the youngsters (and their parents).

Next Friday the young participants will gather at the Orinda School at 11:15. From there they will head for Oakland's Rollerland, where they will hold a roller skating party from noon to 2 p.m.

Orinda Pupils Anticipate Pre-Holiday Song, Fun

With eyes sparkling like the interiors of their classrooms, children in the Orinda School District are anticipating the song and fun that will bring school to a close for the Christmas vacation.

The Yule atmosphere has pervaded each of the five schools, and the rooms in each are glittering with Christmas trees and and colorful decorations.

Trees were donated to each classroom in the district by the Orinda Mothers Club.

But, currently busy putting the final decorations on the tree and hanging the final bits of tinsel, children are eagerly awaiting Tuesday. Aside from being the last day of school for awhile, that's the day carols will be sung, gifts exchanged and Santa makes his appearance.

The old gent in red will stop on his travels from the North Pole to visit each Kindergarten class in the district. His full gift and goodie bag has been filled by the Mothers Club.

But the older pupils will also get in on the pre-holiday fun and excitement. Here is the way each of the Orinda schools is celebrating:

PINE GROVE — It will be a musical Christmas program Tuesin the auditorium of the Pine Grove School. Under the direction of Gerald Meeder and Mrs. Patricia McGee, the entire student body will participate in the singing of carols, while special musical events will also be presented.

In addition to decorating their Christmas trees, the pupils at Pine Grove have given their classroom windows a stained glass effect.

GLORIETTA — Our fine feathered friends will also have a Merry Christmas at the Glorietta School. Pupils are bringing seeds, bread and cake crumbs, peanuts, raisins and other bird delicacies to school for the Christmas pies which will be put out at bird feeding stations around the school.

Parents have been invited to school today, where at 1:15 a procession of all the pupils will tour the various rooms to inspect the decorations. The procession will be accompanied by the playing of Christmas music over a loudspeaker.

The parents will also be present Monday at 10:15 for the school's Christmas program, which will be highlighted by the "Story of the Nativity," put on in musical form by Mrs. Alice Slusser's 2nd grade class.

DEL REY — The halls of the Del Ray School will resound with Christmas carols Tuesday afternoon as each class takes its turn at caroling. The holiday spirit will also prevailing within the classrooms, as the pupils exchange gifts.

A page from a Mexican celebration of Christmas will be taken by Mrs. Addle Spiess' 5th graders Tuesday as they break their pineta and scramble for the delights inside. This pineta is a big, colorful balloon, and will contain sweets and gifts.

SLEEPY HOLLOW — A verse choir rendition of "The Night Before Christmas" will be one of the features of a Christmas assembly Tuesday at the Sleepy Hollow School. This selection will be delivered by Jack Clark's 5th graders

Each pupil will participate in the program with the singing of Crhistmas carols.

ORINDA — 5th and 6th grade pupils at the Orinda School will join with the school orchestra and chorus for a Christmas program in the school auditorium Tuesday. All will join in the singing of Christmas carols.

Younger pupils will celebrate the holiday in their own classrooms. Each room will present a program, and gifts for all will be exchanged.

Children to Help Send Livestock Overseas

Orinda children are being invited to support the Heifer Project as a Christmas contribution, thru the Sunday School Department of the Orinda Community Church.

The Heifer Project is an interfaith rehabilitation project supported by the Congregational Church.

In a sense of world neighborliness, livestock is sent overseas to provide relief and to give the recipients a chance to contribute to their own welfare.

Supporters of the Heifer Project feel that more lasting benefits can come from sending purebred cows than powdered milk

Attend Carol Festival Wednesday

Realtors' Party is Tuesday

The annual Christmas party for members and friends of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board will be held Tuesday night at the El Nido, Lafayette.

Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres will be served at 7:30 p.m., and a prime rib dinner at 8:30.

Dancing will be to the orchestra of Peppy Landeros.

Frank Curtis is program chairman, Charles Bailey and Bill Hayward have been handling some of the details, and Mildred Tinker is in charge of decorations and reception committees.

Tickets may be obtained at the Real Estate Board office, 1607 Locust Street, Walnut Creek.

100 Girls to Go Caroling Wednesday

The Sun Valley area will get into the Christmas spirit next Wednesday night when approximately 100 girls, both Brownies and Girl Scouts, will be Christmas caroling in groups through the valley.

Mrs. James Quick is chairman of the affair. Mrs. Richard Mansfield will organize the troops and appoint them to definite stations throughout the valley.

Mrs. Clifford Bacigalupi is in charge of refreshments, hot chocolate and cookies which will be served at Montecito School afterwards.

Troops participating in the caroling will be:

Brownie Troop 4, Mrs. Richard Mansfield; Troop 136, Mrs. George Kern; Troop 81, Mrs. James Quick; Troop 296 Mrs. George Rinquist; Troop 33, Mrs. Clifford Bacigalupi, Troop 99, Mrs. Robert Balaam.

Girl Scout troops and leaders will be:

Troop 168, Mrs. James Ainsworth.... Troop 204, Mrs. Bruce Gill; Troop 145, Mrs. Harry Couden; Troop 162, Mrs. John Tronoff.

Garden Club Plans Party, Slide Showing

The annual Christmas party of the Mt. Diablo Mens Garden Club of Contra Costa County will be held Monday at the El Monte Drive In on Clayton Road near Concord.

Theme of the meeting will be Our Floral Avatar, with a special presentation of colored slides taken en by members of the club. Any member wishing to show slides can do so, and unlike other such meetings, the pictures shown may be of any subject they may wish to present and discuss.

Past president Mr. H. A. Schwerin of Lafayette and a photographer, will show a few special stereoscopic slides taken on a recent vacation trip. Mr. Joe Lisler of Martinez will tell a Christmas story.

Dinner will be served at 7 p.m.

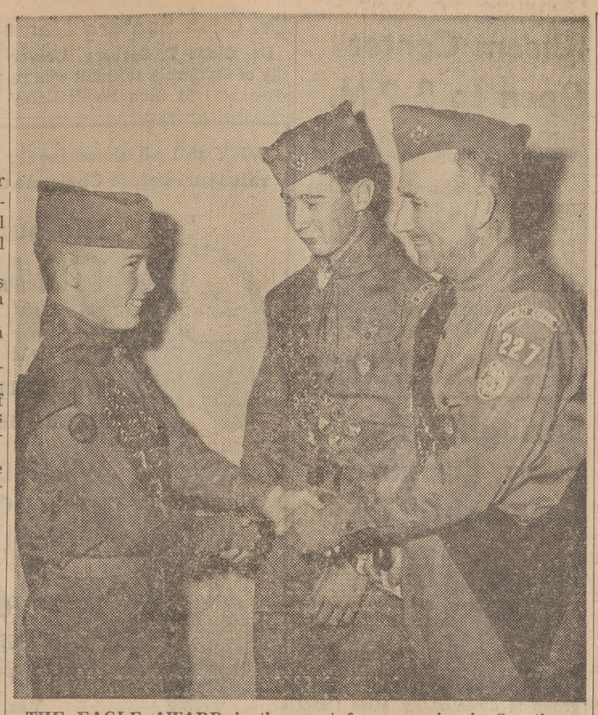
Contractors' Party Will Honor Parker

The annual Christmas party of the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County will be held at 7 p.m. Thursday at the El Nido restaurant, Lafayette.

A plaque will be presented to Association President Harold E. Parker in recognition of his contribution to the association.

Results of the election to the Association Board of Directors will be told.

About 150 members and wives will participate in the festivities according to present reservations.



THE EAGLE AWARD is the most famous prize in Scouting. This happy group has three of them. Congratulations are exchanged by 12-year-old Matt Connolly III, Richard Railton, and his dad, Scoutmaster Edward E. Railton. They are members of Troop 227 of Walnut Creek, which honored its advancing Scouts recently.

Dad, Son, 12 Year-Old Get Eagles

A scoutmaster, his son, and another youth who became one of the youngest in the country received Eagle Scout honors at a recent Court of Honor for Walnut Creek Troop 227.

A large group of scouts, relatives and friends saw Duncan Knudsen, chairman of the Meridian Scout District, present the highest scouting awards to Matthew Connolly III, Richard Railton and Richard's father, Scoutmaster Edward E. Railton.

Young Connolly received the honors just short of his thirteenth birthday, culminating a period of near maximum possible progress through the Cub and Scout ranks.

The elder Railton, scoutmaster of the troop, had kept pace with his 13-year old son in earning the required merit badges for recognition by the Eagle award.

He awaited on the stage with Mrs. Railton and the parents of young Connolly as the two boys were escorted by fellow scouts "Along the Eagle Trail."

Cliff Nelle, Voice of the Eagle in the ritual, traced the progress of the two boys as they were moved from location to location, each symbolic of a step of progress in attaining the Eagle rank.

Effective paintings of the scout ranks were done by Mike Manwaring to mark the route.

Members of the Moluk Chapter of the Order of the Arrow presented an impressive Indian ritual.

Participating were Don Jackson, Henry Dickson, Larry Dodds and Peter Knudsen.

Eagle Scout John Ashley, Troop 241, gave the invocation.

Other scoust included Bob Jesser, Tom Alamano, Tim Beem, Pete Reynolds, Bill Wright, Dan Connelly, Don Roberts, Dave Blackmore, Bill O'Brien, Steve McBride, Ronnie Treat and Mike Manwaring.

'Hatful of Rain' To Star Vivian Blaine in SF

With Vivian Blaine making her first dramatic appearance in the starring role, "A Hatful of Rain," Michael Gazzo's new drama, opens at the Alcazar Theater in San Francisco for a 3½ week run after 11 months on Broadway, beginning Wednesday evening, December 26.

A compelling story of the impact on a family when they learn that a hero of the Korean War has become addicted to narcotics, the play finds Miss Blaine appearing as Celia Pope, the devoted wife of a veteran who has grown dependent upon drugs for his physical and emotional stability.

County Group to Begin Survey on Helicopters

The Contra Costa County Development Association, with the help of city governments and chambers of commerce, will begin a survey into the desirability or necessity of establishing helicopter service from this area to San Francisco, Mrs. Iona M. Booth, manager of the development association, said today.

Helicopter service potential in Contra Costa was discussed by General F. B. Butler, retiring manager of San Francisco International Airport, at a meeting of city and chamber executives recently.

The Contra Costa survey will go into passenger, mail, package, and business possibilities, suggestions of sites for heliports and helistops and will require checks of industry and business.

"THERE IS NO pre-conceived plan," Mrs. Booth declared. "Any recommendations from the committee will be predicted on facts developed in the countywide survey. Whether several helistops and heliports will be recommended depends upon returns of the survey."

General Butler declared at the meeting that in his belief "Contra Costa can well use a helicopter service, not a taxi system, but a service."

He reviewed the helicopter services now operating in New York, Chicago and Los Angeles and voiced his conviction that such service here is essential "for the bay area is on the threshold of growth such as occurred in Los Angeles, but, I believe, on a more substantial basis."

He said service areas would have to be determined and declared decisions would have to be made on locations of heliports and helistrips. A heliport, he said, need not be more than 200 by 400 feet with proper approaches while a smaller space of land would be necessary for a stop station.

Enthusiastic over development possibilties, Butler declared he believed such a service is "something we should encourage, with subsidy, such as mail," and urged a completely county conducted survey to arrive at determinations that will be coordinated with studies being made by other bay area counties.

HE SAID THAT a probable rate of 10 cents per mile would prevail.

"You will have patronage potentials to determine," General Butler said. "You should have a complete picture prepared to present to the Civil Aeronautics Authority when hearings may be held on service authorization."

Oakland Passes Pin-Ball Law

Three types of pinball machines — about 40 per cent of those now in operation — will be banned in the City of Oakland under an ordinance which is now being processed through the city council.

The ordinance was enacted at the request of City Police Chief Wyman Vernon who admitted that policing of gambling type machines was a problem.

Three types of machines will be banned. They are:

1. The machine which operates similar to the popular "Bingo" game, in which the operator wins by lining up five balls on the "scorecard" vertically, horizontally or diagonally.

2. Those machines on which the owners can clear "free games" from the scoreboard without them being played out.

3. Multiple coin machines, on which the player can better the odds by inserting additional coins during the play of a given game.

Women's Division Picks Mrs. Tinker President

Mildred Tinker, who helped organize the Women's Division of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board 10 years ago, has been elected its president.

She has been a realtor in the Walnut Creek area for 12 years. Six years ago she moved here from Oakland. She was born in Eureka, and was schooled there. Her residence is in Lafayette.

Mrs. Tinker during this year was chairman of the program education committee, and served on the entertainment committee.

"RIGHT NOW I'm worrying about decorations for our Christmas party next week, but later on there will be committee appointments and such," she said.

"One of the big events for us is the spring benefit party. The money will go for a local charity," she added.

The local Women's Division may join the Women's Division National Council this year. Mrs. Tinker has been in favor of the move for several years.

ALSO ELECTED by the Divisionare Vice President Zoe Woolsey and Secretary-Treasurer Nicki Nichols.

Retiring officers are Mildred Applegate, president; Nicki Nichols, vice president, and Sarah Flower, secretary-treasurer.

The Division has about 150 members. The Real Estate Board has a total membership of 400 salesmen and women, and 100 brokers.

Shopping at home means savings in time and money. And by supporting local merchants you are making this a better community to live in.

Local Lady Gets $105 Phone Call

Mrs. Clifford Bishop, of 3312 Helen Lane, Lafayette, got a phone call from a stranger which netted her $105 recently.

The call, which came during the morning of Mrs. Bishop's busy day in the home, was from the master of ceremonies of the Station KFRC program, "Teletest."

"Are you ready to answer our jackpot question?" the give-away caller asked. Mrs. Bishop was and did. Her answer that Dean Atchison was Secretary of State under President Harry Truman earned her the prize money.

Her husband is employed in the University of California Radiation Laboratory in Livermore. Don, 8, and Tom, 6, are the Bishop children.

Moraga Dateline

By EVA THUNE, DR 6-5593

From summer to winter, overnight. I drive through a beautiful, white wonderland early mornings, when even the weeds are entrancing. Oh, if it could only be like this on Christmas. The only time of the year when I miss the snow.

John Thune, who returned on December 6 via TWA airlines from the east coast, where he had spent a couple of weeks in New York and Buck Hills, Pa., reports plenty of snow and cold weather. They have nothing on us!! Reason for trip, a YMCA business conference.

AH, YOUTH

John arrived home to find daughter Caroline already in home port. Caroline is feeling quite able to get out and around, but finds it to be a bit more tiring than formerly.

Amazement is expressed on all sides to the fact that she is walking around and looking so well. The blessings of youth—a strong, healthy body and a one-track mind.

Another neighborhood accident involved Miss Bonnie Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Hamilton of Rheem Boulevard.

Bonnie, who is an eighth grader at the Moraga School, fell from the parallel bars during gym class. Striking her head, she received a concussion which has kept her home from school.

Mrs. Sarah Glasky, who was at the Hamilton home, drove Bonnie and her mother to the doctor. Latest report is that Bonnie is feeling much better and hoping to be in school in time for the Christmas program.

BIRTHDAY NOTES

A happy birthday to little Miss Kathleen Gilliland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gilliland of Rheem Boulevard, who celebrated her second birthday on December 6 with a BIG birthday cake and all the trimmings.

Also, to young Master Scott Carr, son of Alfred (Sam) and Mardel Carr, who live at the end of Camino Pablo. Scotty celebrated his second birthday on December 2.

Thoroughly surprised on his sixteenth birthday by a group of ten friends was Chuck Lance, son of Bill and Edna Lance of Camino Pablo. The party ended after they all welcomed Caroline Thune home from the hospital.

A big day for Chuck, for now he is old enough to have a driving permit. A belated Happy Birthday, Charles!

HOLIDAY FETE

Plans were discussed and agreed upon at the last Moraga Community Club board of directors meeting, which was held the night of December 6 at the home of Mrs. Elinor Dickenson on Camino Pablo. Decided was that this year's Community Club Christmas party will be held Saturday night, December 22, at the Carroll Ranch, starting at 8:30 p.m.

As it was decided to have a caterer serve a buffet supper around 11 p.m., it is necessary the committee have an accurate count of the number attending.

Club members are allowed to bring guests. Admission price will be $2 per person, all reservations to be definitely in by Monday. Reserved tickets will be issued at the door. Anyone who does not have a reservation will not be admitted.

Try to attend, and be sure to get in your reservations!

At the meeting, December 1 of the B. of D. of the Moraga Junior Horesman's Association, it was planned to have the Christmas party for the club members only tomorrow night. It will be held at the home of Mrs. Kitty Balbini, 1814 Reliez Valley Road, Lafayette.

ROUND-UP

Appointed as chairman of trail rides was Hank Boeger. Chairman of troop training is William Morrison of Lafayette.

Report was made of the breakfast given by the International Footman Association of Alameda County at the Chateau of Crow Canyon, for the 5th Region of California Horseman's Association.

This was a quarterly meeting and was attended by 120 persons, 13 of whom were from the Moraga Jr. H. A. Plans were under discussion for the State Horseman's Convention, which is to be held in Antioch the first part of October, 1957.

Reports by Fire Chief Al Baitx reveal that the new fire house, which is under construction on Rheem Boulevard, is progressing very satisfactorily.

WONDERFUL TRIP

Under Social Events: Three couples, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Drake and Mr. and Mrs. Bing Franklin, drove to San Francisco Sunday night and attended Cinerama, "The Seven Wonders of the World."

Hilda Franklin's enthusiastic recommendation convinces me it is worth the trip. After returning, they all enjoyed a late supper at the home of the Carrolls.

Mrs. Louise Lynch, leader of Brownie Troop 23, informed me that the regular meeting time Tuesday will be changed to 2 from 3:30 p.m., as that is the last day of school.

Investiture ceremonies will be held that day, when four new Brownies will receive their pins. Those four are Sandra Sullivan, Jackie Carr, Susan Rogers and Kathleen Lynch. Mothers of the new members are invited to attend.

NO MORE SCHOOL . . .

Room parties will be held Monday afternoon. There will be a tree, exchange of gifts, refreshments and games.

The annual Christmas program is scheduled for Tuesday night in the chool auditorium, 8 p.m. Mrs. Rossol and Mrs. Larson are in charge of the program, which includes musical numbers and a play entitled, "Christmas Eve."

Santa will make his appearance after the program, to greet the children and give out treats. All area residents are especially invited.

Caroline Gets Ready to Ride Again After Fall

Not quite ready but cheerfully eager to get back astride a horse is 17-year-old Caroline Thune, the Moraga horsewoman who less than a month ago was rushed to the hospital with a broken back, incurred in a riding accident.

Caroline, the president of the Moraga Junior Horseman's Association, was brought home from Peralta Hospital December 5.

Walking stiffly but somehow not encumbered by the body cast she is wearing, Caroline visited The Sun Monday. She was released from the hospital five days earlier than expected.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Thune, of Camino Pablo, Moraga, said she is already getting back into the social swing of Acalanes High School, where she is a senior. In fact, she's going to a dance tonight.

Asked when she would be able to ride Pica Storm, the horse that threw her, again, Caroline answered, "As soon as I can."

Her mother, however, qualified the answer with the belief that it would be "four or five months."

Caroline will return to Acalanes after the Christmas vacation, but her education hasn's been neglected since her accident.

A special tutor from the high school has been helping her studies, both in the hospital and since she's been out.

Matadors' Win Show Strength

The Miramonte Matadors, under Coach Bob Callan, have served notice that they will be anything but pushovers as their all-frosh-soph team, in two outings to date, has registered one-sided wins.

In their opener they wrapped Antioch up 45-29, and then last Friday they polished off the Alhambra Bulldog junior varsity version, 37-25, at Martinez.

IN FACT, the game was more one-sided than the final score indicates, as the Orinda club held a big advantage going into the final quarter, when Alhambra scored 13 points after being held scoreless in the third period.

Center John Coffey set the pace for Miramonte in the first quarter when he scored three field goals, to pace the team to a 12-6 lead.

It was 16-12 at the half, but in the third period it was all Miramonte as they went to a comfortable third quarter lead of 27-12.

IN THE FINAL quarter Coach Callan inserted a host of reserves, and while Alhambra did manage 13 points, all of which came in the closing minutes, Miramonte had 10—and that was more than enough to insure the win.

Miramonte's Floyd Blaney wound up as the game's top scorer with 8 points, all coming on four field goals.

Locals Boost Pomona College Enrollment

Five Lafayette and Orinda students have boosted to 119 the total of Bay Area residents currently enrolled in Pomona College.

Enrolled at the college in Claremont are from Lafayette Gretchen F. Kaiser of 3100 Andreasen Drive and Elizabeth G. Lyser, 3390 Springhill Road.

From Orinda are Beverly E. Branch, 2 Washington Lane; Walter B. Gulick, 50 Park Lane Drive, and M. Tania Hudd, 22 Las Palomas.

Those are Bombs Rocking Moraga

Those explosions which resounded through parts of Moraga early this week were not cars backfiring, tire blowouts or trash being dumped . . . they were bombs.

Civil defense practice bombs, according to Moraga Fire Chief Al Baitx, made of cardboard and black powder. And they're dangerous, he adds.

The explosions were apparently set off by youngsters who found the bombs along roadsides. A couple of duds have also been recovered. The big mystery is, when and how they got there.

Baitx said the bombs are 18 inches long, 3 inches in diameter, and have 18-inch quick-acting fuses. They are clearly marked and will rattle the countryside for more than a quarter of a mile when touched off.

Rheem Center Open to 9 P.M.

Rheem Center stores will be open every night next week until 9 o'clock.

The only shops which will not participate in the evening schedule the week before Christmas are Edwards Cleaners, Bill's House of Beauty, Neldam's Bakery and Mooney's Barber Shop. However, they join the other Rheem Center stores in offering convenient service to the public.

The Rheem Center stores will not be open on Christmas Eve.

Springhill Pupils' Song, Drama to Entertain PTA

The Springhill School A Cappella Choir will entertain at the Tuesday meeting of the Springhill PTA. The meeting will be held at the Acalanes High School Cafeteria at 8 p.m.

The choir's presentation will be accompanied by "Living Picture" dramatizations of the songs. The group is directed by Miss Carol Agajan and Mrs. Barbara Davis, teachers at the school.

The dramatic group is under the direction of Mrs. Joyce Jenkins and Larry Buttwinick, also teachers.

According to Mrs. Orville Sammann, unit president, "there will be only a brief business meeting so that we may have more time to enjoy the children."

Parties will be given in each school room during the day Tuesday. Christmas trees have been provided by the PTA and decorated by the children.

Refreshments will be served by each class' room mother. The trees will be taken to Juvenile Hall during Christmas vacation.

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

Two weeks before Christmas—a radiant halo!

When one young Orinda lady, aged 7, came home with a scalpful of sequins and glitter that had strayed to her head during gift-making time in class, her mother couldn't do much about it with the hairbrush or comb, but finally arrived at a solution by using the vacuum with the upholstery bruch attachment MORE than once-over and NOT lightly on the young lady's locks!

CHRISTMAS FOOTNOTES . . . Among the fathers w/their families in tow, looking JUST as spellbound as the kids when Santa Claus came to town last Saturday were Messrs. James Benney, Ed Leiber and Mel Arighi . . . Ethel Spittler headed for Santa w/her two youngest, one on each hand . . . Helen Vallens shopping for the trimming of a Christmas Angel . . . Ruth Howe leaving a lengthy shopping list on the Sprouse-Reitz counter, a friend running after her to return it.

One of the Christmas baubles from the Big Tree at the Crossroads, smashed to smitheruins a half-block away . . . The pretty unbreakable stars on the tree dancing in the wind and destined for a LONGER life . . . Curiosity almost killing them, the Cub Scouts of Den 5 on a tour of the Orinda Post Office w/Postmaster Laura Mallary, more interested in WHO the intriguing packages were FOR than how they got there or what happens to them before delivery.

THE FUN OF FINDING Christmas-red boysenberry and cranberry sherbert, raspberry and blackberry flavors in shades of mauve, and the traditional nesselrode, eggnog and pumpkin ice creams among the long list (which even incl' Licorice) at Loard's . . . Vi Caldwell w/a car full of kids and TWO trees bustled to the back of her car . . . The Jess Longs, among the early buyers last wknd, picking their the usual way . . . an even match for their daughter's height!

And all through the house—gold!!

At the Philip Bells, a BEAUTIFUL mobile of shocking pink and chartreuse baubles and dowels . . . Ann Mordy searching for madrone branches to which she'll tie polished crabapples w/pert red bows . . . The fragrance of Christmas baking coming from the Canon Drive kitchen of Helen Drews . . .

The Roy Beckett's Hacienda Circle home decked out front w//life-size choir boys and Santa Claus, melodic music floating out over the hi-fi system . . . Also on Hacienda, ceramic angles hovered over an outdoor creche scene, spotlighted, at the Ted Sanfords . . . The glamorous array of gifts for Gourmets and party-minded people in the Orinda Store's gift shop.

OVERHEARD IN THE HARDWARE STORE . . . "My wife's really DANGEROUS with that gold spray stuff . . . She'd even gold-leaf ME if I didn't duck out of her way!"

Which reminds us . . . One lady we know gilded two of her hunter husband's duck decoys, dressed them up w/tiny pearl necklaces and mistletoe crowns, and for her party this week, FLOATED them in the bathtub of her very fashionable pink, black and gold bathroom!

Still more — on spray . . . Try some, silver OR gold on a pineapple, dried artichoke pods, or dried hydrangeas . . . Any one of these, a STUNNING effect!

Another local lady, talked into buying a tremendous antique cheese cover, (those found in country stores to house 25-lb. rounds) couldn't quite imagine what she'd EVER use it for UNTIL she started planning for the holidays . . . collared w/holly, blue baubles for its eyes, a gilded apple in its mouth, and under the heavy BIG glass cover, now rests a roasted pig's head serving as a splendiferous centerpiece and conversation piece!!

All creatures are stirring

The Hugh Riegers and the Les Rowes are both calling in friends for a jolly season party tonight . . . Lois and Jim Denning will gather guests around a festive punch bowl and a homemade Gingerbread House during their Open House tomorrow at their home on Longridge Road.

The Hollis Jones have set Saturday night, too, for their traditional tree-trimming party for a score of people at their Scenic Court place . . . The Bill Courtrights among those hosting early gatherings to precede Pandora's Christmas party in WC tomorrow eve.

COCKTAILS AND BUFFET DINNER w/dancing, an exchange of holiday plans and warm wishes prevailed at last Saturday's party at the Park Lane home of John and Greta Young . . . guests finding OUT that it was the couple's twenty-fifth wedding anniversary and gifting the surprised pair w/a handsome carving set which they plan to christen over the Christmas table.

Here, for the evening fun were the Charles Hunts, Andrew and Peggy O'Brien, Alan Thors, Phil Babcocks . . . Also extending SILVER anniversary congrats were the Henry Harrises, Don Hollanders, Dick Janssens and John and Lo Glascock . . . Greta's sister Jean coming in from Pleasant Hill w/her husband Clayton Fredenburg and Marge and Reed Bell of WC.

St. Nicholas was there!

"THIRTY MINUTES WITH SANTA," the December Workshop doing of the Dramateurs, gathered members and guests and their offspring for an evening of festivity at the Fellowship Hall of the Community Church Monday night . . . It was Bob Hanford of Lafayette under the permanently-waved white whiskers and wearing THE red suit . . . The Charles Apgar's daughter Aleta stepped into a part in the play at the last minute and did herself (AND her mother) PROUD! Jane Steele and Grace Duffy co-producing the musical-story, in which the STORY OF CHRISTMAS was impressively told.

The children up front completely enthralled . . . Those seated too far back, taking to their tummies in the aisles for better viewing . . . Marvin Tripp, one of the Three Kings, soloing on "Oh, Holy Night" . . . Peter Duffy making his Dramateurs debut as one of the Kings . . . Paul Pollaczek as Joseph, Ann and son Peter seated in the audience . . . Bruce and Margorie Montgomery and their three daughters Marcia, Kathleen and Jackie, all three in look-alike snowball skirts of white fur pompoms on white felt . . . Alice Price who soloed in the carol singing, unwrapping candy canes for her reddish-blond moppets, the two right off a Christmas Cover in matching coppertone corduroy outfits and VERY ROSY cheeks!

Among early gatherings for the YOUNGER SET was the Open House given by Sue Paine last Saturday evening at the Owl Hill home of her parents, the Rees Paines . . . Some sixty chums dropping in for an evening of fun, food and DANCING!

An 11th B'day last Saturday for Vinnie Gilbert, daughter of the John Gilberts of Hacienda Circle . . . She, hostess to a group of prettily-petticoated and starched young ladies who arrived for dessert and then on to a movie!

Cubs Prove Good Scouts as Aides Of Santa Claus

Five 8-year-old boys of Den 10, Cub Pack 211 in Orinda have grown long white beards and donned fur-trimmed red suits for this Christmas. Or at least, by their actions, they should have.

The pint-sized St. Nicks — George Adair, Doug DeCosta, Paul Franklin, Jimmy James and Geoff Rieser — gave up their own Christmas party to make the holiday a happier one for children in the Contra Costa County Hospital.

They raised more than $50 making and selling Christmas ornaments, bright gadgets made of foil, foam, tinsel and ingenuity. The money was to be used for a gala Yule party.

But then the Christmas spirit came into play — along with the Santa Claus mission — and the boys bought dozens of presents for the hospitalized kids, using as much imagination in their gift-giving as the real St. Nick himself might have.

Rotary Learns About Estate Proprietorship

Ways and means of managing and maintaining an estate were explained Wednesday at the noon luncheon meeting of the Orinda Rotary at Willow Inn.

Speaker for the meeting was James Moore III of the American Trust Company of San Francisco, who spoke on "Estate Planning for Sole Proprietorship."

Planning an estate, Moore stated, requires three basic phases, each of which he explained to the Rotary: (1) Acquiring the estate, (2) proper management, (3) conservation of the estate after death.

Program chairman for the day was Merle Brown, manager of the Orinda branch of the American Trust Company.

The Rotary meeting next Wednesday at Willow Inn will feature Rotarian the Rev. Chauncey Blossom, pastor of the Orinda Community Congregational Church, who will deliver the annual Christmas message.

Rotarians and Rotary-Annes will gather at 5:30 p.m. Sunday in Orchard Nursery for their annual Christmas party.

A new member introduced at Wednesday's meeting was the Rev. W. Carl Thomas, pastor of the Lafayette-Orinda Presbyterian Church.

Orinda Masons Install Lewis As New Master

Orinda Masons Tuesday night installed Martin J. Lewis as master of the lodge at a colorful open ceremony. John J. Prentice was installed senior warden, and Elbert A. Dawson Jr., junior warden.

A capacity crowd of relatives and friends attended the ceremony, held in Orinda Community Church's Fellowship Hall.

Other officers of Orinda Lodge 704 who were installed are:

Joseph F. Conley, treasurer; Aetley C. Flenner, secretary; Albert A. Dawson Sr., chaplain; Charles L. Smith, senior deacon; Robert E. Gemetti, junior deacon; Charles H. Cunningham, marshal; E. W. Slusser, senior steward; Arthur E. Stiefvator, junior steward; Thomas G. Cullen, tiler.

Installing officer was Past Master Alfred W. Odle, with Past Master Sherer G. Culver officiating as master of ceremonies.

Ushers were Fred Alexanderson, Paul Booth and Past Master Andrew Catherall.

Stewart L. Wade, the retiring master of Orinda Lodge, presented the perpetual jewels. He was in turn presented with the past master's apron by Past Master Vernon Patterson; and Past Master Wilbur Crosby presented him with an appropriate gift from the lodge.

Following the ceremony refreshments were served.

Shipmates to Hear Christmas Reading

The Shipmates, a married couple's club of the Orinda Community Church, will meet Sunday at 8 p.m. at the home of John and Mary Dorr, 38 Oakwood Road, for a Christmas reading by Mrs. Dorr and a musical program.

Next year the Shipmates will divide into four groups which will meet two consecutive months in homes, and then all four groups will join together the third month at the church.

Young married couples of the community are cordially invited to join in the activities.

Probers Call Orinda Woman

Orindian Mrs. Wilhelmina Loughrey was called before the House Un-American Activities Subcommittee Tuesday as the two days of investigation and interogation came to a close.

Appearing under subpena before the investigators, Mrs. Loughrey was identified as former manager of the Twentieth Century Book Store in Berkeley.

The book store has tabbed as communistic, but Mrs. Loughrey refused to identfy herself with it.

She also refused to say if she was a communist or identify mention of her in the People's World, a communist newspaper, or on a bulletin of the Workers' School in Oakland in 1942.

Church school will begin at 10 a.m. Evening Service will commence at 7 p.m. Sunday night.

The church, which meets at Dick Mathis' stationery store, 969 Moraga Road, invites all local residents to "come and fellowship with us."

"HEAVEN TO ELEVEN," new children's clothing shop on Park Street, Rheem Center, attracts youngsters and their parents not only because of the wide selection of clothes for children through the age of 11, but also because of the unusual mural and the novel Children's Tree. Mrs. Thelma Patterson (left), owner of the new store, and Mrs. Dorothy Morrissey, manager, are shown behind a counter in the shop. Above them is part of the mural, more than 40 feet long, painted by Roxanno, well-known mural artist. Roxanno is completing the mural this week, and Mrs. Patterson invites those interested to drop in and watch the artist at work. The mural depicts a children's fantasy, featuring forest characters. The tree-limb in this picture is part of the 13-foot-high paper-mache Children's Tree, on which youngsters' garments are displayed. Standing in the center of the store, the tree is a creation of Joan Pearsol. —Sun photo by Mattson

Pupils to Give Play Depicting Lively Toys

Children of the primary grades of the Lafayette Elementary School will present a Christmas program entitled "An Old-Fahioned Christmas" to the parents and friends of the school Monday evening. at 7:30 in the school auditorium.

The story of the program depicts the toys from under the Christmas tree as they come to life for Christmas eve. Nearly 100 children will take part in the performance, which will include dancing dolls, tumblers, wooden soldiers, Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer, carol singers, and the Nativity Scene as a finale.

Primary classes at the school will view the performance today, while upper grades will have a special showing Monday morning.

Costumes are being made by the PTA room mothers and their assistants.

One special feature will be a second grade's interpretation of the popular ditty, "The Train That Goes Through the Middle of the House." The large train used in the presentation has been made by the children.

The script for the play and the direction of the performance has been under the supervision of the school faculty, including Miss Sally Akers, Mrs. Mary Porter, Mrs. Almalee Zittel, Mrs. Mary Colvin, Mrs. Audrey Ingram, Mrs. Marion Read, Mrs. Lillian Berta, Miss Elizabeth Riordan and Mrs. Kathryn Guppy.

Paper Drive

Orinda Boy Scouts will be collecting old newspapers and magazines tomorrow morning. Troops 207 and 247 are participating, and the profits will be used for local Scout projects.

The boys will collect at each house. Scoutmasters suggest that the drive will be aided if papers are already stacked and tied with strong twine.

If convenient, Orinda residents are requested to bring their papers directly to the loading depot at the Orinda School, on the southern parking lot adjoining the Christian Science Church property. Scouts and their Dads will be at the depot at least until noon.

Local Student Sings At Santa Barbara

Jonathan Langdon, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Langdon of Oak Hill Road, Lafayette, is a member of the Glee Club at the Santa Barbara College of the University of California.

The group, which took part in the recent Mozart Symposium, has scheduled a Pops Concert for a major event next semester.

Langdon is a freshman at the college, majoring in industrial management.

GREAT DAYS COMING

This week has been one of waiting and expectation. We have only two more days of school before Christmas vacation takes over.

Previous to the holidays, though, many things are planned. The Christmas program presented by the music department and dance department will be the "Christmas Flower" Monday night.

Kathy Young will portay Pablo, Pat Whitehead will play the priest, and Judy Patterson Pablo's mother in the story of a Mexican legend about the flower which is now known as the poinsettia.

Others also dancing in the program are seniors Sheila Byrns, Betty Clark, Julie Dees, Marilyn Englehard, Lynne Henrietta, Ann Hightower, Donna Jamison, Judy Parker, Judy Patterson, Alison Plant, Dolores Roeschen and Drury Spurlock.

Juniors Linda Axelson, Judy Colvin, Susan Fink, Diane Fontaine, Carol Gardner, Barbara Hull, Karen Jeffries, Pam Phillips and Pat Seifker; and Sophomore Diane Olberg.

YULE TIDINGS

The music department will play and sing such numbers as "Rudolph, the Red Nosed Reindeer," "The Coventry Carol," "Mistletoe 'n' Holly Bright," and "Carol of the Sheep Bells."

The Christmas assembly also comes next week and everyone is looking forward to it. Teachers have been busily practicing under the direction of Mr. Mayes, and there is still somewhat of an air of mystery about the whole program.

Diane Dochterman, with a small patient from the Therapy Center, will also be at the assembly. At this time a check will be presented to the Therapy Center for the amount of money collected from student body members who wished to donate to this worthy cause.

In order to add to the amount of this check there was a volley ball game between Mr. Nelson's home room and Mr. Stamper's, Tuesday at noon. All the proceeds from this game went towards the Therapy Drive.

Next week also brings the Literary Magazine onto the scene. All those who participated in any part of the publication of this magazine anxiously await the final result. Editor Susan Wasson hopes that "everyone will really support this first issue of the year so that we might have another in the spring which is even bigger and better.

Troop 218

Boy Scout Troop 218 of Lafayette will hold a Court of Honor Monday. Ceremonies will be preceded by a pot luck dinner.

Scouts who will appear at the Court of Honor are:

Tenderfoot — Leland Shafter; Second class — Rick Ames, Dave Bierk, Dennis Conaghan, Daryl Dorcy, Bill Eldridge, Jim Hessy, John Holley, Jim Nelmes, Dick Ray, Mike Roach, Jack Squires and Bob Thompson.

Most of the scouts of Troop 218 attained their rank by work performed at Camp Wolfboro.

Pack 212

Members of Cub Scout Pack 212 of Orinda will meet tonight at 7:30 in Fellowship Hall for their December pack meeting and Christmas party, according to Duane Neuenschwander, Cubmaster.

Each den has been studying "Christmas In The Americas," crafting presents and Christmas decorations, and will participate in carol-singing and skits during the evening program.

Troop 16

Christmas spirit is showing in the plans of Brownie Troop 16 of Lafayette as the girls are working hard on tray favors and Christmas tree pins for the children's ward at Kaiser Hospital.

The troop will travel to the hospital Monday to carol for the patients and deliver the trays.

Squabbling Must Stop-- Only Taxpayer Loses!

As the news stories gather on the fight between Sheriff Harry Brown and the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors over the establishment of a separate communications system, one thing becomes apparent.

This is only the latest skirmish in a long series comprising a running battle between the board and the sheriff.

Equally apparent is the fact that this running battle should certainly stop. No one is gaining anything and surely the people of the county are losing.

It does not take a great deal of insight to realize that this whole thing dates back to days before Brown was elected—or even before he ran.

Most county officials—those who comprise the "in" group—were in favor of a "chosen" candidate who was Brown's opponent. Brown has been the first outsider in many years to crack the county "organization."

As a result there has been much friction between the sheriff's office, county officials and the board of supervisors. There is no question but that many obstacles have been thrown in Brown's way, and the reasons are primarily political.

A perfect example of this is the communications question which is now under consideration.

Another example is the request by Brown for a pinball and card room ordinance and his request for a non-civil service assistant. Many other counties have drafted pinball and card room ordinances and most sheriff's offices have a confidential assistant outside civil service ranks.

Another good example is the problem faced by the sheriff in patrolling the North Richmond area. Brown has asked repeatedly for colored deputies to patrol this beat, but Brown claims that county officials have made it impossible to get them.

On the other hand, this is not a one sided argument. Brown must learn that to get cooperation he must cooperate himself.

Certainly he has not kept his temper under control at all times, and consequently the public statements and criticisms of his fellow officials have done nothing to improve the situation.

In some cases the criticism was undoubtedly deserved, but he has frequently acted too hastily. If cooperation is lacking, he has to appeal to the people, but his program should be carefully weighed and thought out—not composed of what has appeared to be, many times, spur of the moment denunciations.

Certainly he should have presented a program and weighed the possibilities before taking the latest communication problem to the courts. The facts should have been presented to the board of supervisors.

As it is, a full-scale squabble has ensued, and nobody stands to win, certainly not the taxpayers.

And the taxpayers are the ones who pay the bill. Therefore, in the name of good, honest service, we urge more temperate action on the part of all concerned with the ultimate end being cooperation between departments.

This is necessary if we are to have the kind of government and sheriff's office protection this county so badly needs.

But the work will have to come from both sides — cooperation from county officials and cool thought on the part of the sheriff.

Henry, Feed that Pup!

Running, biting, jumping, howling, flying, purring and playing, pets abound in the homes of local residents.

Coming in all shapes and forms, with as wide a range of characteristics as there are domestic species, these furry and feathered little friends all present one present on problem in common to their beguiled and benign owners — who's gonna take care of 'em?

Traditionally, pets are unofficially the property and companions of members of the younger set. It would follow, then, that these young animal lovers take the responsibility of feeding and caring for their pets (sounds of embittered laughter and shouts of protest from the parents).

This, to the misfortune of mothers who "have a thousand other things to do," is not always the case in our community. Young pet owners, like people in all other areas, simply don't run true to form.

Your Roving Reporter this week set out to find out just how much of a help our younger generation is in caring for household pets.

These are the replies of some of the folk he querried:

MRS. C. R. FRY, 1020 First Street, Lafayette: "We have a grey Persian cat, and our boy of 14 doesn't help in caring for her. You know, Persian cats are funny. They get hungry just when the housewife is working. They always seem to pick out the busiest member of the household to take care of them."

MRS. ROBERT A. JAMES, 10 Washington Lane, Orinda: "As of this week we have no pets, but we had a guinea pig up until last week. Our son, James, who is eight, had it as a pet and took care of it. But it went the way of all pets."

ALEX C. GANIATS, 31 Diablo Circle, Lafayette: "Well, we have two children, but no other pets to take care of."

MRS. BURNETT HOOD, 3567 Boyer Circle, Lafayette: "We have a French poodle, but no children around any more to care for her. But Suzie (the cat) is an instituation around here. She takes care of us, instead of us taking care of her."

MRS. JOHN DERKISON, 1110 Apple Drive, Pleasant Hill: "No, neither of our youngsters are old enough to take care of our pet cat. I guess they will when they get a little older, though."

ERNEST TROGH, 25 Don Way, Walnut Creek: "We don't have any pets and our three month old daughter, Cindy, is much too young to take care of any. In future years we most probably will have one type of pet or another but I think when that time comes along my wife and myself will be caring for it."

MRS. MARGE BIANGI, 3689 Contra Costa Highway, Pleasant Hill: "Our children always were growing up but they are all married now and have their own families. None of them cared for the pets around the house when they live in this area at the present time."

MRS. FRANK HARVEY, 35 Sedalia Court, Walnut Creek: "Our duaghter, Margie, has a puppy and she tries to take care of it, but she is still a little young to do a good job. My husband and I are trying to house break the pup and we try to show Margie how to feed the dog and take care of it. Margie is 4."

Teach your children fire safety early!

A special fire department for kids has been created by the National Fire Protection Association to help give children a respect for the dangers of fire early in their lives.

Your child can join this wonderful fire department and receive a special instruction manual on how to avoid fires, a special badge and an official membership card. All you do to enroll your young fire prevention expert is to send 25¢ to SPARKY'S FIRE DEPARTMENT, Boston 1, Mass.

Sparky's Fire Department is a non-profit project of the NFPA's nation-wide public education program.

Dons to Donate $500 to Center

A check from the Acalanes Associated Student body for more than $500 will be presented by Don student body president Kent Griegg to the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center at a special student Christmas assembly next Tuesday afternoon.

Student body president Griegg stated that, "Santa Claus would be on hand to help the presentation and to give a special surprise to Diana from the Acalanes student council."

Faculty members will present a yule program during the assembly as part of their annual faculty Christmas show for the student body.

Special Districts Being Studied

Proposals that would empower the County Board of Supervisors to call dissolution elections for non-operative special districts, and to consolidate special elections to "no more than four per year," have been made by the Taxpayers Association.

Association members will confer with State Senator George Miller Jr., and Assemblymen S. C. Masterson and Donald Doyle on an overall program toward "more efficient and economical local government."

Polio Danger To Adults Is Outlined

Governor Knight's drive to have all Californians vaccinated against polio received hearty endorsement by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis when that organization's regional medical consultant, Dr. Charles Price, addressed Contra Costa County March of Dimes leaders on Tuesday.

Speaking to about 50 March of Dimes chairmen at Orinda about the January polio drive, Dr. Price reported that 15 per cent of all polio in the United States occurs in California.

"California is one of the few states where polio increased in 1956 over 1955's number of cases," Dr. Price said.

"Seventy-five per cent of the people here are unprotected against polio, and of those who have protection, most are children who received the vaccine in the school and health department programs."

Dr. Price pointed out that only three per cent of people over the age of 20 are protected against polio, yet this disease is increasing among adults.

He warned that one-third of all polio attacks teen-agers, yet only 15 per cent of this age group are protected against polio.

"There will be a minimum of one to two thousand cases of polio in this state in 1957, unless all Californians under 40 are vaccinated," he declared.

"The primary aim of the March of Dimes in the coming year is to finish the job — to lick polio by protecting everyone who could be its victim. All our health agencies are cooperating — it is up to us to let people know why they should be vaccinated and where they can secure this protection."

'Gift for Every Child' Is Juvenile Auxiliary Theme

"It's nice knowing we are going to make a child happy this Christmas with the gift he asked for, rather than to try with little unimportant gifts for many children."

This is the sentiment of groups of children throughout the county to the appeal made by the Juvenile Hall Auxiliary for Christmas gifts for wards of the county's Juvenile Court who are in foster homes or at the Hall, according to Mrs. Sallie Hoff, holiday chairman for the Auxilary.

Members of Girl Scout and Boy Scout troops, Campfire Girls, Indian "Y" Guides, Brownies, Bluebirds, Cub Scouts, 4-H Clubs, school and Sunday School classes are answering the appeal generously.

Mrs. Hoff said, "They are aware of their own good fortune of spending Christmas morning secure in their family circle. Thees youngsters know that being with one's brothers, sisters and parents is an important part of Christmas for most of us. They know that a worthwhile gift is important to children in substitute homes or at the Juvenile Hall."

Many of these young people's groups are giving up their own traditional custom of exchanging gifts with each other, and concentrating instead on the child or children they have decided to "sponsor" this Christmas. Many of them are earning the dimes and quarters necessary to buy the special gifts for their "Christmas child."

"With nearly 500 gifts to be provided for this year, the youth groups' response is reassuring and makes us realize once more what a wonderful community we live in," Mrs. Hoff added.

Information about gifts needed may be secured from Mrs. Hoff at YE 4-4873; in Concord area, Mrs. Henry Rae, at MU 5-3897; in Pleasant Hill, Mrs. George Robson, at MU 2-1816; or the Auxiliary office at the Juvenile Hall, Martinez 2160.

Famed Celloist Playing in S.F.

Cello star Zara Nelsova returned to San Francisco as Symphony guest soloist at the Opera House this week.

This afternoon and tomorrow evening she performs the saint-Saens Cello Concerto in A minor with Enrique Jorda and the orchestra.

Co-featured is the U.S. premiere of Ballade in D by the young University of California music faculty member Andrew Imbrie.

'Desk Set' Extended in SF

Shirley Booth, in the Broadway comedy hit, "The Desk Set," will remain at the Curran Theater through January 5 instead of leaving for Chicago as originally planned.

The heavy demand for tickets and calls for party reservations over the holidays decided the producers upon remaining in San Francisco. The new play has set new attendance records for itself, unequalled even during its New York run.

"The Desk Set," which was originally set for four weeks here, is the story of office workers whose jobs are threatened by installation of an electronic brain.

Big Taxpayers Council Proposed

Creation of a Bay Area Taxpayers Council has been proposed by Bruce Howard, president of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association, and his opposite number in Alameda County, William White.

Howard and other Association members will meet representatives of other associations to discuss the matter further, he said.

The plan for the big organization comes out of concern for the multiplying groups which affect many counties. These include the San Francisco Bay Area Pollution Control District, the East Bay Transit District, East Bay Municipal Utility District, the proposed Bay Area Planning District and the proposed Rapid Transit District.

Letters to The Editor

HELP FOR HELPLESS

Dear Editor:

For the person on your Christmas list who "has everything" I have a suggestion: Give him the privilege of giving to someone who has nothing.

Food for the hungry, warmth for the freezing, new hope to the hopeless, these are the things you can give in his name. One dollar moves 133 pounds of milk, butter, cheese, wheat, corn, rice or beans to the hungry; $15 will distribute one ton of these foods to Austria, Germany, Italy, Japan, or other places.

Just write The American Friends Service Committee, 1830 Sutter Street, saying, "Please send your Christmas card with my name on it to the following persons (name and address). I am enclosing the amount of $—."

You may designate whether the money is to be used for food in Austria or other places; for clothing, or blankets; to provide a teacher in Southern Italy, or to provide a staff member to work with the migrants in California's Central Valley. Or you may safely leave it to the discretion of the AFSC. They have been in this business for more than 35 years.

Georgia Busch

Dear Editor:

This is to express my gratitude to the Lafayette Fire Department for having extinguished the recent fire in my home, and to my neighbors for having removed our furnishings and possessions while the dwelling was still ablaze.

The Lafayette Fire Department, under the direction of Chief Shirley Peakes, is to be commended for its immediate response to the alarm and for the rapidity with which it brought the fire under control. It is my understanding that the fire was under control within 18 minutes after the alarm was received.

During the fire, my neighbors organized spontaneously a house clearing brigade and removed our furniture, clothing, and library.

When the fire was brought under control, they then cleaned the floors, returned each item to its proper place and even remade the beds so that when Mrs. Shepard and I arrived there was little or no evidence that the house had ever been emptied of its contents.

These same generous people worked late into the evening removing debris from the garage and several returned the following day to help us sift through the ashes so that we could inventory the items lost.

The Lafayette Fire Department and our neighbors turned what might have been a tragedy into an inconvenience. We are deeply grateful.

William F. Shepard

Hatchet Job on Doyle! Who, why and how come?

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

Still the No. 1 topic for discussion in these parts is the Don Doyle-textbook-insurance story. And the No. 1 mystery is still: Why are the Examiner and Chronicle doing a hatchet job on Doyle?

This was mystifying from the start and time has not answered the question. I've talked to city newspapermen, public officials, political observers and Don Doyle. There are various theories.

Yesterday a friend, who is close to the Sacramento scene, said he had heard that Doyle was being considered as a candidate for lieutenant governor in the next election. This plus his tie-in with Governor Knight and his strong support from labor, the teaching lobby, and republicans have made him a big target.

Too hungry, too early

"Some big wheels feel that Doyle has become too hungry too early—that he was coming along too fast and pushing too hard. The Nixon forces are not too pleased with him. So . . . they began to cut him down," said this observer.

I asked if the textbook-insurance row has hurt Doyle statewide and in the county.

The observer thought it had, "although he might come out smelling like a rose." He added that if Doyle had aggressively answered the Examiner and had stuck to his guns from the begining, he would have licked it from the first.

I agreed in part but the Examiner still would have worked him over. Rather odd but the Chronicle earlier in the year had editorially backed Doyle's textbook stand. They knew about the insurance fee story months ago but used it primarily on Doyle.

Doyle not sure either

I asked Doyle yesterday if he knew why he was the target.

He said he still wasn't sure—except it ties in with the total political picture. As vice-chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, he is in line for the chairmanship in two years. This is a powerful, important post. He is a Knight supporter. Knight and Nixon do not get along well. This, he said, is the probable reason why he has been attacked.

I asked if he were planning to run for lieutenant governor.

"No," he answered, but indicated an interest in running for secretary of state if incumbent Frank Jordan retires.

State politics are rather involved at the moment. Will Attorney General Pat Brown face Knight in the gubernatorial race? Are Knight—and Mrs. Knight—looking toward Washington? Would they accept a high post there that might lead to greater national heights? Who will the Democrats run against Senator Bill Knowland?

And on the local level: Who will the Democrats run against Doyle?

Has Doyle been hurt?

I personally don't think that the Doyle "story" has hurt him locally—or very little, at the most. But you never can tell. It certainly should spur the Demos into finding a strong candidate. This is good. We should encourage good men to run for office.

Back to Doyle and textbooks—I think he now realizes that he must fight for the basic issue and must go on the offense. I think you will see him do just that.

There can be no question there is a textbook problem. Our school educators tell us that; the state school board officials have asked for a sweeping investigation. Local committees are studying the problem. It is quite likely that from this mess some good will result.

Don't Quote Me, but . . .

Somehow, the Ants Just Don't Seem to Savy

By DOROTHY PATTERSON

WELL, NOW THE NEWS HAS COME THROUGH to our country citizenry that our county health officer, Dr. Henrik Blum, is pushing for the inspection of food-handling establishments for the benefit of all those who wish to continue this human race we have all entered into.

Dr. Blum is a physician, and though we have never met I consider his word to be as good as gold. (This is a metal rare and precious readily detected by the Rubber Glove and $calpel $et. I do not take issue with this point, because I was not born yesterday; however, I do firmly believe that Dr. Blum's quest for cleanliness is based on consideration of the healthy future of those who were),

Dr. Blum, yours is a commendable approach to unsanitation, and in a recent article in The Sun with regard to your concern about these conditions, I read the words, "Surely, we would not tamper with our own health in our homes."

Plans sometimes go awry

Actually, we housewives endeavor earnestly to be meticulous at all times; but Nature has a frightening way of interfering with our plans along this line. Consider my own personal experience as as an illustration of what could happen to anybody . . . and did.

To begin with, in the good old days when our country was involved in a fracas we all referred to as "World War II," Himsy, my groom, was assigned to an outpost at the end of Land's Gone Bye.

His C. O. was wed to a charming woman, we were all told to say, and my acquaintance with this creature left a scar on my life that I have never been able to erase. She mentioned one day that she "could always tell just what a woman was like by looking at her bathroom."

Needless to say, from that day on, the officers of that unit came out of some of the cleanest bathrooms in the world.

The ants parade in great style

True, this has nothing to do with cleanliness in the serving of food; but it does lead up to my issues with Nature.

From that time on, I have concentrated my special efforts on a clean bathroom; but I must confess, Medicine Man, the ants have taken over as only ants can conquer.

It was never my plan to have this happen and I do not tamper with the health in my home, but this point I can't seem to get across to the ants.

Why, we even use sugarless soap here, and though my kids are not the sweetest little things in the tub, they certainly do rank with some of the cleanest. That has always been my plan. Keep it clean! Now I have ants in my plans.

Microscope gave consolation

A medic friend of ours once made an outstanding discovery during a train trip, when, just for kicks, he took some smears from the wash basin in his roomette and examined them under a microscope.

You know what? The smears were sterile — the layers of soap had done their work. Thus, I am consoled at times like this when my tub and basins are overrun with little busy pismires.

Perhaps cleanliness is a thing that we laywomen housewives are not qualified to cope with, sir, so I'm certain that none of us will interfere with your inspections of food-handling establishments. In that a night out for dinner is one of ou rbiggest thrills in our humdrum existence, we do, however, urge you to treat these investigations with consideration and understanding.

So, let your axes fall where they may and if they land on our steaks we won't mind a bit. Many of them that I have ordered in the past could have stood a little tenderizing, too.

the perfect gift

THE REVISED STANDARD VERSION

At Christmas gifts are given to celebrate the birth of Jesus nearly 2000 years ago. Yet how often do we choose a gift in keeping with the real meaning of Christmas?

This year you can give the most appropriate gift of all — the Revised Standard Version Bible.

The RSVB is so clear and powerful, so easy to read that it brings new understanding of the great stories, parables and teachings of the Bible. It is truly a wonderful book to own and to give.

Mrs John Strong Is New Chairman For Girl Scouts

Mrs. John Strong was named district chairman for the Walnut Creek Girl Scouts at a meeting held December 5 at the Valley Baptist Church.

Mrs. Joel Thigpen, who has been district chairman for the past three years, presided. The following officers were named to assist Mrs. Strong:

Mesdames Wayne Barney, secretary-treasurer; W. E. Wight, finance representative; Royal Treat, organization; James Shippey, program; Albert C. Hubbard, camp site; R. P. Nelson, day camp; E. M. Meyers, established camp; I. L. Powell, training representative; Lloyd Fisher, public relations; A. W. Mulborn, products; H. Robinson, movie council, and Allen Madison, membership-nominating.

MRS. A. H. CROCKER was named neighborhood chairman of Murwood and also Mrs. A. H. Crocker, Parkmead; Mrs. F. H. Scholin, Walnut Creek, and Mrs. W. D. Owen, Walnut Heights.

The office of Buena Vista neighborhood chairman has not been filled.

Mrs. I. L. Powell was awarded her five year pin. Mrs. J. Orr Kyle, president of the Diablo Area Girl Scouts spoke briefly, mentioning that at the end of this year there will be approximately 4000 girls active in scouting in the area.

ANOTHER SPEAKER was Mrs. Sylvia Prasloski, world traveler and a veteran of over 20 years in Scouting. She showed some articles suitable for girls to make as Christmas gifts. Miss Elsie Buckwold, professional Scout worker, talked about the many opportunities for service offered in Scout work as a full time career.

Bennetts Like Dogs, Cats; Ginger Favored

"I don't collect them — they collect me!"

Her pampered crew of eight dogs and 12 cats plus a fresh batch of puppies prompted this exclamation by Mrs. John Bennett, of 1801 Second Avenue, Walnut Creek.

She told the Sun this week how some of them are left over from the seafaring days of her retired Chief Petty Officer husband, and others just "happen along."

"THEY SEEM to just happen along, and there's no one to take care of them, so I keep them. We both love animals."

Mrs. Bennett, a former champion swimmer from the 1920's, remembers that during the Navy years Petty Officer Bennett usually had a dog or two on shipboard, and she a few more to keep her company at home.

Longest with the Bennetts is Ginger, a cocker spaniel 20 years old who went to sea with John Bennett when she was only six weeks old.

THROUGH THE years, she has become a mother of 142 pups, origin usually doubtful. The last batch of nine arrived in 1953, when she was 17.

"Most dogs don't have pups much after about 10 years old, but statistics don't bother Ginger," said Mrs. Bennett.

But the puppy-days are probably over for Ginger, since she was recently operated on for Cancer. Dr. Glen Miller pulled her through, despite dim hopes of several weeks ago.

HOW ABOUT the other canines? There are Bambi, Rusty, Rover, Muletrain, Freckles, Schnauzer and a new dog, no name yet.

In fact, if they can persuade someone else to take the newcomer they'll let the new owner name him. He's a "hunting kind of dog."

The Bennetts said goodby to the U. S. Navy about three years ago, and since, Mr. Bennett has been working for the Sanitary District.

HIS LOVE of dogs was a great liability once during the Korean War when one of the four dogs on board fell over the side.

In battle conditions, ships don't turn around for sailors who hit the water, and not for dogs either.

Bennett had to watch as a 19 year-old Navy boy went over the side for the dog. Both had to be left behind.

"Alternative was endangering the ship and hundreds of lives," said Bennett.

Eastern Star To Celebrate Christmas

Newly installed officers of Almona Chapter 214, Order of Eastern Star, will conduct their first meeting tomorrow night at 8 in the Masonic Temple.

Worthy Matron Alta Rosel and Worthy Patron Clarence Ellsworth will preside.

Christmas festivities will be the entertainment for this meeting. Jo Marshall will be in charge of the banquet room and decorations.

Jessie Halstead will be refreshment chairman. Her helpers will be Dorothy Barton and Louisa Phurber.

Frank Halls Celebrate Their Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hall celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary on Sunday, December 2, at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Long, 3309 Glenside Drive, Lafayette, with whom they reside.

Eighteen guests — the immediate family, including four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren — attended the reception and the dinner which followed.

Flowers made a colorful setting for the occasion, and Mrs. Hall was presented with orchids.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall, who own a home in San Francisco which they are renting out, were married December 2, 1906 at St. Patrick's Church in West Oakland.

Tri-Delts to Sip Yule Cocktails

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Rees D. Payne, 8 Owl Hill Road, Orinda, will be the setting tonight for a holiday cocktail party for members and guests of the Diablo Tri Delt Alumnae.

A large gathering is expected from 7 to 9 p.m. Many couples will go on to dinner along the strip after enjoying cocktails and the Christmas decor at the Payne home.

Arrangements for the party have been made by Mrs. Robert W. Lahr of Walnut Creek. Assisting her were Mrs. Robert K. Holm of Walnut Creek and Mrs. Marvin D. Gilardy of Orinda.

Tri Delts new in the area who have not been contacted are invited to attend, according to Mrs. Lahr.

Millers Make Alamo Home After Trip

Dabney Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Miller of Castle Hill Road, Walnut Creek, and his bride, the former Beverly Hazlett of Los Altos, have made their home in Alamo.

After nuptial services in Berkeley First Presbyterian Church fireside room, the couple honeymooned in Las Vegas, Zion, Bryce Canyon and Phoenix, Ariz.

The bridegroom is a graduate of the University of California and a member of Sigma Pi fraternity. Beverly also attended the university.

Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hazlett of Los Altos.

Santa, Stars to Bring Joy At Hospital Branch Party

"Santa Claus" will distribute 300 pounds of candy to youngsters attending the gigantic Christmas party of the Children's Hospital of the East Bay at the Hotel Claremont tomorrow.

The confection is through the courtesy of Walnut Branch and the occasion is the colorful children's "Christmas Varieties," a riot of fun presented by the Branches of Children's Hospital of the East Bay in connection with their annual Festival of Christmas Trees which ends Sunday.

In addition to Santa Claus, a star-filled show has been planned, beginning with Ed Ford and "Whitey," the wonderful dog act recently seen on the Ed Sullivan Show.

Jolly Jack, the comedy clown, will be there, too, with all his fabulous magic, as well as Bert Hansen, with his puppets and exciting juggling act.

"The Christmas parties in the Salem Room, one at 10 a.m. and the other at 1 p.m., are especially convenient for parents who wish to view the array of beautifully decorated trees on the mezzanine, while their youngsters are being entertained during the hour-long how," says Mrs. W. R. Whitener of Berkeley, who heads the planning committee.

Assisting Mrs. Whitener with party-plans are Mesdames Robert Orf, Louis O. Simenson, Robert E. Fisher and Robert M. Payne, all Hilltop members.

Admission is 75 cents and proceeds of the event will aid the hospital's large charitable program for needy children.

"GUESS WHAT'S IN THE BOX!" That puzzler may be intriguing these members of Pandora Chapter of the Childlren's Home Society — but there's no guess-work for them (or for the other Pandora members) that the chapter's Christmas buffet supper and dancing party tomorrow night — Pandora's "Christmas Box" — will be lots of fun. Left to right the Mesdames Edward Walsh, Donald LaRue, Ronald Kersh and Vernon Axelson. The affair will be held at the Walnut Creek Elks Club. Proceeds will benefit the Children's Home Society.

Feb. Nuptials Await Nancy Macomber

Of interest to many in this area is the coming wedding of Nancy Macomber of Orinda and John Skinner of San Francisco. The wedding will take place at Saint Stephens Episcopal Church in Orinda on February 15.

Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alden Macomber of Miner Road in Orinda. She attended Acalanes High School and the University of California in Berkeley.

On the campus she was affiliated with Alpha Phi and Linden Campus Branch of Children's Hospital.

John is a native of San Francisco. He is the son of the former Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Skinner of Oakland. He served in the Army Medical Corps during World War II, seeing action in New Guinea and New Britain.

He attended Hastings Law School and is now in business in San Francisco.

Nancy has already chosen her attendants for the wedding. Her matron-of-honor will be her sister-in-law, Mrs. James Macomber (Nancy French) of San Jose.

Secondary roles will be filled by Mrs. William Solomon (Jean Stephens) and Mrs. Don Edmonston (Joyce Gallagher), both from Berkeley.

John has chosen as his best man his brother, Henry E. Skinner from Ross. Ushers will be James Macomber from San Jose, John Scharetg of El Cerrito, and Bill Quandt and H. M. Schoonover from San Francisco.

Pandora 'Christmas Box' Tomorrow to Be Gay Event

Tomorrow evening at 7:30 Pandora's "Christmas Box" will open with cocktails at the Walnut Creek Elks Club on Danville Highway.

Members and their guests will step through a gaily decorated front door into the large room done in white and gold Christmas motif.

Downstairs in the games room an old-fashioned Gay 90s atmosphere will prevail.

Buffet supper and dancing will start at 9, and over 250 will dance to the orchestra of Gordon Heche, who is also planning an interlude of Christmas carols during the evening.

Co-chairmen for the gala party to benefit Children's Home Society of California are Mesdames Walter Haefele and Andrew Knudsen.

Assisting them with arrangements are Mesdames Vernon Axelson, John Banister, William Henning, Floyd Kerr, Donald La Rue, John Sullivan and Edward Walsh.

Fantasia Told Of Children's Home Goals

Mothers and daughters received a much closer view of the work of the Children's Home Society at a tea presented by Fantasia, Junior Chapter of the society, last Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Hickey, director of auxiliaries and chapters in the Northern District, discussed with guests the aims of the society, which are to find good homes for babies that come to them, the manner in which this private agency operates, and the parts that junior and adult chapters play.

These groups aid by supplying some of the clothing and other things which children might need, and contribute a great deal of money earned from their projects and functions, she explained.

The groups also help out in the clinic where the babies are brought in order to be examined, according to Mrs. Hickey.

Future activities of the Junior Chapters were outlined at the tea at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Stubblefield on Glen Road, Lafayette.

The four chapters in the Bay Area hope to present a ball next spring as a joint project. Fantasia is also giving a Christmas party on Dec. 21, at the Caves in San Pablo for its alumni groups and guests.

DINNER, BRIDGE

Doris and Church Morman of Poshard Drive entertained a group of friends last Friday evening for dinner and bridge.

Those enjoying the evening were Marge and Jerry Ball, Betty and Ed Dunlap and Jean and Jack Sutherland.

UW to Hear Oratorio at Yule Meet

The 40 voice choir of the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church will perform a "Christmas Oratorio" by Saint-Saens under the direction of Robert Bruce at the Christmas meeting of the Walnut Creek Branch of the American Association of University Women Wednesday.

The Saint Saens oratorio is one of unusual beauty and features both soloists and a quintet. Soloists will be Betty Holzworth, Beverly McKeown, Beverly Frank, Jean Nunnally, Rod Palmer, John Herrod, Harold Oxen, Dick Leach and Jim Kelly.

Accompanying the choir will be Richard Knobel at the organ, Chrissie Inman-Kane at the piano and the String Ensemble of the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church.

The members of the Walnut Creek AAUW will meet for dinner at 7 p.m. at the Women's Club House. They will adjourn to the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church for the presentation of the oratorio at 8:30 p.m. Reservations for the dinner may be made with Mrs. Lester Olson, YE 4-4284.

Thetas to Hold Party Tomorrow

The Gamma Alpha Chapter of Theta Tau Theta sorority will hold its annual Christmas Formal Champagne Dinner Party tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. Chris Schmitz, 3045 La Caminita, Lafayette.

Local members expected to attend are:

Mr. and Mrs. William Grenfell and Mr. and Mrs. Schmitz of Lafayette; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dalzell and Mr. and Mrs. Kellum of Walnut Creek; and Mr. and Mrs. Chris Schmitz Jr. of Pleasant Hill.

Xi to Exchange Yule 'Goodies'

Diablo Valley Alumnae of Alpha Xi Delta Sorority will hold their December meeting Monday at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Joseph F. Smith Jr. in Alamo.

Highlight of the meeting will be an exchange of Christmas "goodies" by the membership.

At the top of the evening's business agenda will be plans for the sorority's January benefit dessert bridge.

Any Alpha Xi Deltas living in the Diablo Valley area who wish to join the alumnae group may call Mrs. Smith at VE 7-4427, or Mrs. Glenn Vivrette at AT 3-6776.

Orindan Judy Johnson to be June Bride

The traditional passing of a box of chocolates at the Kappa Alpha Theta house at the University of California Monday informed sorority sisters of the coming marriage of Judith Gay Johnson of Orinda to Royce Rutledge Lewellen.

Close friends and family of the bride-to-be learned of the engagement Sunday night at a party at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Clifford M. Johnson, 460 Camino Sobrante.

The wedding date is set for June 22, 1957. Judy was attending a Christmas party of the sorority, of which she is president, when the chocolates were passed.

The bride-to-be, who will be graduated from Cal in June, is also a member of the Mortar Board, Prytanean and the California Club at the University.

Lewellen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Lewellen of Jefferson City, Mo.

Heidi Chapter Has Fun at Yule Luncheon

Active and inactive members of Heidi Chapter of the Children's Home Society were entertained at a Christmas luncheon Tuesday at the home of Mrs. James Browning in Happy Valley.

Assisting Mrs. Browning were Mrs. Ray Falk, chairman of the day, and her committee; Mrs. Larry Hicks, Mrs. E. N. Matson, Mrs. S. DeAngelis, Mrs. J. Wayland Barnette and Mrs. Louis Tacchella.

Each member placed a child's toy under a large Christmas tree. Mrs. Gilbert Myers, Heidi president, will see that they reach the Children's Home in Oakland so that they can be distributed to the foster homes.

The beautiful tree, which had been decorated by Mrs. Earl Plescia and Mrs. T. J. Clark to represent Heidi at the Towhee party, was won by Mrs. Clark. Mrs. Barnette led the group in games.

Play Highlights Society Meeting

The Beta Nu Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, women's honor society in education, held its annual Christmas meeting at Marchetti's in Antioch Monday.

A social get-together was held, followed by a dinner meeting presided over by Miss Hetty Johnson, president.

Seasonal decorations were used on the dinner tables.

After dinner, an original play called "The Chosen One," written by Miss Edna Keys of Danville, was given.

Lafayette Women To Play Cards

The Lafayette Women's Club will be holding another card party Tuesday at the Veteran's Memorial Building. Dessert will be served at 12:30 p.m. and Bridge or Canasta will be played at the various tables.

Chairman Mrs. Mervyn Wall is taking reservations for the event and can be called at AT 4-4775. Helping are Mrs. Earl Plescia, Mrs. Vincent Lombardo and Mrs. T. J. Clark.

Holiday candles, decorated by Mrs. R. M. McNairy, are to be given as prizes.

Holiday Dinner is Tonight

Contra Costa Phi Mu Alumnae will gather tonight at 7 p.m. at the home of Mrs. David Gordon, 27 La Cresta Road, Orinda, for their annual potluck Christmas dinner.

Mrs. William Cook of Pleasant Hill will assist Mrs. Gordon.

Mrs. David Bryant of Lafayette, social service chairman, will show the clothes which the group purchased for Christmas in answere to the requests of two teen agers at the Juvenile Hall in Martinez.

Mrs. Robert Horonjeff of Lafayette and Mrs. Ralph With of Orinda purchased records which will be presented by the alumnae to the Children's Ward at the County Hospital in Martinez for Christmas.

Election of officers will also be held at this meeting.

Hilltop Garden Club To Hold Yule Party

Hilltop Garden Club members and their husbands will have a holiday party at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Sam Smith, 1029 Sunnybrook Drive, Lafayette, tomorrow at 6:30 p.m.

Cocktails Here Precede Party

Many members and guests of the East Bay Dental Conference, attending the organization's Christmas party last Saturday night, got an early start on the evening's festivities with cocktails enjoyed at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Donald E. Walker, 15 Don Gabriel Way, Orinda.

Hosting the cocktail party, which preceded the Christmas affair at the Claremont Country Club in Oakland, were Dr. and Mrs. Donald R. Kennedy, of 3949 Peardale Drive, Lafayette.

Sixty guests, many of them from the local community, joined the Walkers at their home.

Fair Oaks Club Now '20 Akorns'

The Fair Oaks Womens Club held its regular meeting at the home of a new hostess to the group, Mrs. Phebe Wililams. The co-hostess was Eleanor Sheehan.

President Beth Chism opened the meeting and measures of business that have been pending were completed.

The new name voted in was "20-Akorns." The club is limited to 20 members; all members are living in or near walnut groves, for which the Walnut Creek area is famous.

Interest and enthusiasm, as well as funds, are growing from the monthly White Elephant Auction, and encouraged the small group to give a check to a large family, who would otherwise not have a Christmas.

Those present at the planning meeting were: Kathleen Crosby, Phebe Williams, Annabel Deswert, Ora Thorp, Beth Chism, Florence Williams, Lenore Edwards, Eleanor Sheehan, June Berzel, Erna Heibel, Chris Gibbs, June Beem, Charlotte Miller, Margaret Nesbit and Alice Hanson.

CHRISTMAS CAROL FESTIVAL — the fourth annual such program — will be presented at 8 p.m. Wednesday at Acalanes High School auditorium under the sponsorship of the Lafayette Junior Chamber of Commerce. Choirs of seven churches in Central Contra Costa County will sing. Jim Herrick (right) of the Jaycees, co-chairman of the event with Dick Kohler, listens appreciatively as a few of the singers from St. Stephen's Episcopal Church of Orinda rehearse for the festival, under leadership of Donald Aird (seated at organ), director of the St. Stephen's Choir. Left to right are Alice Keller, alto; Audrey Ingram, soprano; Richard Keller, bass, and Janice Vicrette, alto, director of the Junior Choir. Other churches to be represented in the program are Our Savior's Lutheran Church and Lafayette Community Methodist Church, Lafayette; St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Walnut Creek, and Christ the King Catholic Church, St. Mark's Lutheran Church and St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Pleasant Hill.

Linnets Choose President

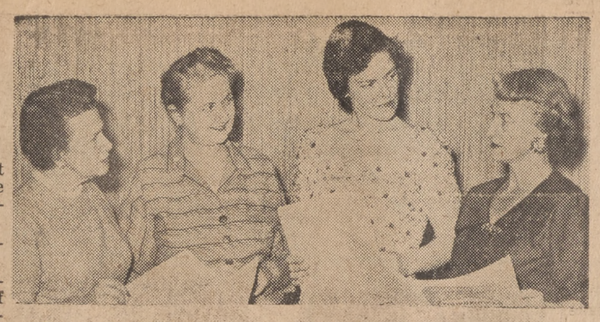
Mrs. Paul J. Cortese of Walnut Creek was elected president of the Linnet Juniors, Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, in a recent meeting.

She succeeds Mrs. David Wilson of Lafayette in the top post.

Other new officers are Vice President Mrs. David Channing of Lafayette, and Secretary-Treasurer Mrs. Theron Prentiss of Walnut Creek.

New members of the group are Mesdames Thomas Bardet of Walnut Creek, Gerald Bruener of Orinda, Robert DeChene of Danville, Dewey Phelps of Orinda, James Fernhoff of Lafayette, Thomas Nilon of Walnut Creek, and James Richardson of Concord.

Donald Rigney of Lafayette, James Robertson of Walnut Creek Jack Smithers of Walnut Creek and Roger Tilkemeier of Walnut Creek.



CHAMBER MUSIC was played last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. F. Morton, 3788 Happy Valley Road, Lafayette, for the benefit of Hungarian relief. Among those who helped sponsor the event were, left to right, Mesdames Clifton Mayne, Donn Court, Martin Edwards and Matthew Jellett. About 75 persons attended the concert, at which the string quartet performers were Mrs. Barbara Lull Rahm, Mrs. Helen Stross, Miss Mary James and Dr. Charles Tobias.

Concert to Aid Hungarians

Oppressed people in Hungary will soon reap the benefits of an afternoon of chamber music presented last Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Morton, 3788 Happy Valley Road, Lafayette.

The string quartet was presented by University of California scientist Dr. Charles Tobias, his mother and sister. The three are former refugees from Budapest, now living in Berkeley.

Proceeds of the concert, which was attended by Berkeley and local music lovers, will send packages to the strife-torn Hungarian capital.

Members of the quartet were well-known artists of the Bay Area.

Optimists Organize; to Hold Dance, December 22

The Walnut Creek Optimists, only recently chartered, will join with Martinez, Concord and Antioch chapters in sponsoring a benefit Christmas Dance, December 22.

The event will be held at the Diablo Coutnry Club. Tickets may be obtained locally by calling Jack Menges at YE 4-9534.

The Walnut Creek Club this week held its father-son banquet, emphasizing its motto, "Friend of the Boy."

MANY OTHER activities have been undertaken since the club was formed.

Members made a float which took first place in its class at the Walnut Festival.

They also sponsored a "wheel of fortune" booth at the Festival.

They helped sponsor the Junior Mobilgas Economy Run, held in Walnut Creek.

And they are supporting the Walnut Creek Doodlebugs, which have claimed nation-wide attention as a precision motorscooter unit.

THE 26 members have elected Dan Wakeman their president.

Other officers are John Menges Jr., first vice president; Sam Sutherland, second vice president; Piercy Holliday, secretary-treasurer, and directors Neal Martin, James Lawrence, Juel Murphy and Dr. Leon Schneider.

Sergeant-at-arms is Charles Olson.

That the club is all-out for the younger male generation is emphasized by another of their slogans — "Square boys make a city, not square miles."

MEMBERS OF the new club are as follows:

George Bamberger, Bobby Barnes, Dr. Tom Clay, Paul Dalzell, Bill Fox, Piercy Holliday, George Kanowski, Ralph Keifer, Bob Kellogg.

James Lawrence, Neal Martin, John Menges, James Morgan, Juel Murphy, Louis McKiem, George Nolan, Charles Olson, Marcel Pelletier.

Anthony Perfera, James Raymond, Dr. Leon Schneider, O. W. Stonestreet, Sam Sutherland, Peter Vierra, Dan Wakeman and C. W. Webster.

Local Church Carolers to Sing at Jaycee Festival

Again this year, keeping a 4-year-old tradition alive, the Lafayette Junior Chamber of Commerce is presenting its annual Christmas Carol Festival.

The colorful program will be at Acalanes High School Wednesday at 8 p.m. Admission is free.

Church choirs from the following churches will sing the songs which are such a part of the Christmas season:

Our Savior's Lutherans Church, Lafayette; St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Walnut Creek; St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Orinda; Christ The King Catholic Church, Pleasant Hill; Lafayette Community Methodist Church, Lafayette; St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Pleasant Hill; and St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Pleasant Hill.

The cooperation of many local merchants has made this program possible, as their donations have offset the costs of the program.

According to Jim Herrick and Dick Kohler, co-chairman for the Jaycee program, plans are being made for attendance of more than 500. Parking will be no problem, according to Herrick, due to the excellent facilities at Acalanes High School.

Herrick asks that each person attending bring one can of food, which will be turned over to local welfare agencies.

The Jaycee committee consists of:

Herrick and Kohler, co-chairman; Dick Hansen (church representative), Charles Lendrum, Bob Hickey, George Yorg, Gordon Lindberg and Don Hall.

Barbara Monson in Nuptials

Barbara Marion Monson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ragner Monson, of 2 Monson Lane, Lafayette, walked down the aisle to the altar at St. Clements Church, Berkeley, last Saturday afternoon to become the bride of Henning Niels Pansby of Copenhagen, Denmark.

Escorted by her father, the bride was gowned in white chantilly lace, adorned with pearl buttons. A lace train trailed behind her long wedding dress. In her arms were Lilies of the Valley and orchids.

Waiting at the altar were the Rev. J. Henry Thomas and the bridegroom. Henning, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Niels Pansby of Copenhagen, is a member of the Royal Danish Life Guard.

Serving him as best man was Harry Ross, while ushers were Robert Lilja, Duane Smith and Edward Lippstrew Jr.

Gowned in Burgandy colored velveteen dresses of ballerina length were the Matron of Honor, Mrs. Robert Lilja, and the bridesmaids, Miss Geraldine Smith, Mrs. Edward Lippstrew and Miss Anne Fiebush.

Carrying pink and white carnations in a basket in the wedding procession was the flower girl, Linda Lilja.

Pied Piper Plans Party

Final plans for the Christmas party of Pied Piper Play School were formulated at the December 3 meeting of the group. The party, which will be held Tuesday, will include home baked cookies and a decorated tree.

A nominating committee was formed and a slate of officers is being drawn up.

Plans are also under way for various fund raising projects, including a possible wine tasting party to be held in 1957.

A newsletter will be put out once a month for the benefit of parents and members.

Home Group Plans Party Next Friday

The Christmas party of the Walnut Creek Home Extension, Day Group, will be held next Friday noon at the P.G.&E. building, 1535 Monanza Avenue.

A pot-luck luncheon will be served. Reservations will be taken by Mrs. Sarah Jones, YE 5-1544. Hostess will be Mrs. J. Kun, assisted by Mrs. Charles Gable, Mrs. Henry J. Keith and Mrs. N. Levy.

The usual project program, supervised by Mrs. Mary Williams, County Home Advisor, will be replaced by games, Christmas carols and exchange of Christmas gifts.

Crown Circle Plans Holiday Party, Carols

Crown Circle of King's Daughters will hold its second annual Christmas party Wednesday evening at the Lafayette home of Mrs. Kenneth Smetts, 1058 Buchan Drive.

The singing of Christmas carols as well as the exchange of inexpensive gifts will highlight the evening.

Under the direction of Mrs. Lenard Clevenger, recently installed president, and Mrs. Smetts, project chairman, the Circle made stuffed animals and doll clothes for the children at the Contra Costa Juvenile Hall this Christmas. The Christmas fund for the Girls' Residence in Oakland, sponsored by the Northern California Branch of King's Daughters and Sons, received a local donation.

USE CROSSWALKS

Approximately 40 per cent of pedestrian deaths are due to crossing between intersections. It's not very smart to gamble a lifetime trying to save a minute. Use the crosswalks!

Yule Party At Parkmead

Mrs. Ralph Robb, Parkmead P.T.A. program chairman, announced that a Christmas program will follow a short business meeting Monday at 8 p.m. in the all purpose room.

Mrs. Daisy Buchard's fifth grade class will present Dickens' Christmas Carol.

The seventh and eighth grade chorus under the direction of Mr. Shirley Ramsey and the seventh grade chorus under the direction of Mr. Gorman Rose will sing a group of Christmas songs.

Mario Ganio, music instructor, will lead the Parkmead Band in some Christmas selections.

For a finale the combined chorus and band will present "A Christmas Song."

Decorations for the all purpose room will be arranged by Mrs. Audrey Holiday's 6th grade class.

There will be two other Christmas programs for the parents since the lower grades are on double sessions.

They are as follows: Monday at 1 p.m. the afternoon kindergarten, first and second grades and all third grades will give their program.

Mrs. Bernice Leslie and Mrs. Margaret Wilshuson, kindergarten teachers will present their classes in a skating pantomime and group singing. Mrs. Marjorie Terhune, third grade teacher, will direct all third grade classes in singing Christmas songs.

On Tuesday morning at 10 the program will be repeated by the morning kindergarten with the morning first and second grade children.

Mrs. Ruth Gass will present all fourth graders in Christmas songs and selections on the song flutes.

Two Families Offer Homes To Refugees

Two families of the St. Luke's Lutheran Church have offered to take into their homes a Hungarian refugee family, after hearing last Sunday that 2500 refugees of the Lutheran faith are coming to northern California.

They are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jacobson of 2150 Millview Drive, and Mr. and Mrs. John T. Stirling of 2857 Miranda Avenue.

The Church Council has also discussed possible help which the congregation can offer to the refugees.

Food, clothing and shelter are most important, with employment a later consideration, it was agreed.

Also discussed was a proposed new church building

Culver Heads Valley Art Center Board

S. G. Culver of Orinda is now chairman of the board of the Valley Art Center.

Culver is well-known throughout the area, having been active in the Valley Art Center, vice-president of the Diablo Art Association and a member of the Contra Costa Camera Club.

Serving on the board will be Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kwist of Walnut Creek as directors of the Artists' Market in Lafayette. Lyle Lund of Lafayette is exhibition chairman, while George Hansen of Lafayette is treasurer; Mrs. Connie Bennie of Orinda is publicity chairman; Mrs. Mary Sassone of Orinda, bulletin editor, and Mrs. Irene Malley of Lafayette, social chairman.

The election was held at the dinner meeting in the studio of Leon and Edith Dinkin, Boulevard Way, Walnut Creek, last Saturday evening.

SINCE THE GUESTS arrived in their most "spectacular" hats, prizes were given for best hats.

Robert Love of Lafayette won a first prize for his hat, which was in the form of a contemporary Christmas Tree worn on the head with lighted candles on it. The other first prize winner, Mrs. Mary Kwiat of Walnut Creek, wore a hat fashioned from a bread basket — attached thereto were food, drink, glass and a book.

Both winners received new hats for their efforts.

Those who received merchandise awards were Culver, Mrs. Mabel Powell and Mrs. Peter Howard.

MRS. D. S. HARRIS wore a glove with beautiful stones adorning it on her head, while Mrs. Floyd Helm came decked in pheasant feathers. Mrs. Peter Howard's old-fashioned bonnet contained a large yellow flower which bobbed in the breeze.

J. Gordon Ainsworth's creation was deer antlers with Christmas balls attached.

On other heads were candy canes, bronzed flowers, cowboy hats, Santa hats.

The religious art show at the Artists' Market in Lafayette is on display Tuesdays through Fridays, 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

LOCAL LEADERS who will push the 1957 Heart Fund campaign in Contra Costa County are Ivan Chappell, left, of Danville, a member of the Heart Association board of directors, William Palmer of Walnut Creek, general campaign chairman, and Chester Bekins of Walnut Creek, local campaign chairman. The campaign will begin in February.

Dance Drama To Highlight Don Yule Program

Acalanes students, 250 strong, will present their annual Christmas pageant for the community Monday, 8 p.m., in the Don gym. Highlight of the 1956 yule program will be the modern dance pantomime, "The Little Flower."

Adapted from a story by Joseph Henry Jackson, "The Little Flower" tells how a young boy's offering of weeds before the cross turns into scarlet flowers before the eyes of a congregation steeped in pagan ways.

Music will be played by the Acalanes orchestra and holiday carols will be sung by the Don A Capella group, both directed by instructor Richard Hansen. The modern dance pantomime is directed by Miss Millicent Hamburger.

The program is free, the general public is invited. Last year Acalanes students presented the story of "The Juggler" to a capacity audience.

Sanitation District Preferred by Tax Group After Study

The County Taxpayers Association has completed a study which views the establishment of "sanitation district" administered by the County Department of Public Works as preferable to the creation of independent "sanitary districts."

Such a procedure would be an eventual solution to the problem of too many districts, the study held.

The sanitation district is more economical in that it uses already purchased equipment and personnel, and avoids the original cost and problems of forming the new district, is one conclusion.

"The sanitation district was the most widely used unit for administration of sanitation problems in most other large counties of the state.

"The disadvantage of the usual 'sanitary district' was that experience had indicated that they were much more costly than sanitation districts.

"Sanitary district laws call for a separately elected board of directors that often have conflicting policies with other units of local government and far more frequently than in sanitation districts which are governed by the County Board of Supervisors.

"Sanitation districts have the further advantage in that they have more flexible legal powers of operation than other administrative units in this field," said Association members.

Refugee Family Makes Home with Church Group

St. Mark's Lutheran Church of Walnut Creek has just received its third refugee family since June.

The Waldemar Blank family of Vienna, Austria, arrived December 10 and will make their home with the Vernon Olsons, 530 Shelley Drive, who signed their sponsorship papers.

Mr. Blank was born in Poland and has been a prisoner of war held by the Russians. Frieda, his wife, is from Yugoslavia. They have one child, Sonja, who will be able to celebrate her first birthday in this country as she will be one year old December 24.

The Olson children, Vernon Jr., Sharon and Bobby are bubbling over with excitement since plans are already under way in their home for a birthday cake for Sonja as well as Christmas preparations for the family.

St. Mark's will have a reception for the family December 21 at 7:30 p.m. at the church.

There are two other families as well as five single men whom the congregation hopes to receive before December 30.

One other family has been unable to come because of an illness developed by the wife.

Fire District Survey Sought By Association

A survey of the employees classification and pay plans of fire districts in Contra Costa County has been called for by the Fire Commissioners Association.

It has asked the board of supervisors to employ Kroeger and Associates.

This is an effort to improve county fire protection in the 26 districts, according to the County Taxpayers Association, which also has approved the study.

The Association also announced that the new post of Fire District Coordinator was recently created.

It allows the Supervisors to exercise greater control of over the administration of the districts, according to the Association.

Appointment of Coroner Urged

The County Board of Supervisors has recommended that the office of coroner be made appointive.

The move has been supported by the present coroner, Dr. Paul Fraser, the County Taxpayers Association, the County Farm Bureau, the Industrial Association and the Council of Richmond Industries.

The recommendation will go to the State Legislature.

Talks Planned On 12-Month School Program

The Education Committee of the County Taxpayers Association has recommended that its board of directors talk with area legislators on a 12-month school program.

Such a program would allow maximum utilization of personnel and facilities which take 54 per cent of the property tax dollars, say Association members.

The state legislators would have to pass a statute to make this possible.

The administration of schools on a four-quarter basis would, "provide for a one-third greater use in school buildings and a greater use of teaching staff than at present, thus reducing the teacher shortage," members stated.

"Although this plan has been attempted in isolated districts in the past it has not been successful because it has not been geared to the schedules of other schools," they added.

Field Exercise Is Climax of CD Course

Ten men and women last week completed a 42-hour course in Radiological and Defense monitoring with a field exercise at the County Civil Defense Control Center on Arnold Highway.

The exercise gave them the opportunity to put into practice techniques learned in the course. They were sent into a field containing radioactive sources in a simulated fallout pattern, and their task was to report the intensities and locations and time of reading to the Control Center by means of handie-talkies.

The Control Center deployed the teams and plotted all information on a large map. Four members of Richmond Trailer No. 23 — Helen Swartz, Henry Obert, Lee Daniels and Phillip Barboza — brought their RADEF Trailer to the Control Center and participated in the exercise.

Participants were Erich Berthold, Holger Larsen, Jack Marshall, Arthur Ioas, Jr., and Mrs. Helen Morris of Pleasant Hill; William Gripe of Walnut Creek; Jess John and Ralph Strudwick of Concord; Mrs. Harriet Moorehead and Mrs. Jerry Arenson of Orinda; and Charles Pass and Herbert Zanger of Danville.

Loren Fields of Richmond, Field Representative for the California State Radiological Safety Services, and Mrs. Barbara Burton of the Civil Defense Staff were instructors.

Gleason Gets Silver Beaver Scout Award

The highest award that can be presented to a leader in Boy Scout work at the local council level, the Silver Beaver, was presented to Glenn Gleason of Walnut Creek last Saturday evening during the annual dinner meeting of the Mt. Diablo Council of Boy Scouts of America in the Richmond Municipal Auditorium.

Gleason, who has served as district commissioner for the Meridian District during the past two years, was the only recipient of the Silver Beaver from this area. Others to receive the award were from Berkeley, Antioch and Richmond.

Gleason has been active in youth recreational work in Walnut Creek and has been prominent in traffic safety work as well as taking part in Boy Scouting activities for the past 20 years.

FOUR COMMUNITY scout leaders were awarded the Claude H. McEntyre Award as recognition of exceptional service to the scouting movement in the Mt. Diablo Council.

They were Lester Lloyd, neighborhood commissioner for Lafayette and assistant scoutmaster of Troop 224; Bruce M. Herbert, neighborhood commissioner for the Pleasant Hill area; Elmo Rose, neighborhood commissioner for Walnut Creek, and Paul E. Foster, Boy Scout leader from Canyon.

MIKE BONNINGTON, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Len Bonnington of Moraga Boulevard, Lafayette, was presented with a Certificate of Commendation during the ceremony, in recognition of his quick action in saving his mother when her clothing caught on fire last spring. Mike is a member of Cub Pack 38.

A special Certificate of Commendation was presented to Kenneth Peacock, scoutmaster of Troop 110, Walnut Creek, for an act of bravery in saving a scout's life.

L. S. Seagraves, member of the Pleasant Hill commissioner staff, was presented with the Scouters Award.

Christian Science

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon at Christian Science services Sunday.

Christian Science churches in this area are located at 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda, and at 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek. The Christian Science Society of Pleasant Hill holds its services at the Hillcrest Congregational Church on Gregory Lane.

Scriptural readings include the following from Isaiah (55:8-11):

"For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater: so shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following will be read (507:24-25): "Infinite Mind creates and governs all, from the mental molecule to infinity."

Final '56 Practice Games Next Tuesday

Prep Contests To Be Resumed After Jan. 1

The 1956 part of the 1956-57 prep basketball season winds itself up next Tuesday when the final practice games of the current year are played.

It's vacation time until after the first of the year, starting next Wednesday, with teams confined to practice sessions over the holidays.

TODAY LAS LOMAS goes to Oakland for Bee and varsity competition with Oakland High, and off recent showing the Knights could cop the varsity game, although they figure to have trouble in the Bee section, where they haven't been too impressive to date.

They wind up pre-vacation play next Tuesday when they encounter Harry Ells in Bee and varsity competition at Las Lomas.

Tab Harry Ells' Bees, while it's the Knights in the favorite role in the varsity play.

Today's and next Tuesday's games start at 3:15 p.m.

ACALANES goes to the post tonight when the frosh on the Bees play Miramonte freshmen, and the junior varsity plays the main event, against the Miramonte junior varsity.

The place is the Miramonte gym. The opener is set for 7 p.m.

PLEASANT HILL traveled to San Francisco for a game with Balboa High yesterday.

Next Tuesday the Rams will play another San Francisco team —but at home. The visitors will be Washington High. Game time is 3:30, and it's even-steven in both encounters—the edge, if any, going to the Rams, thanks to home court.

THE ACALANES Dons' varsity and Bees will sit out today and next Monday and Tuesday, confining their activities to practice.

They won't return to competition until after the first of the year.

Knights Score Overtime Win In S.R. Split

The Las Lomas fives traveled to Danville for a pair of games on December 6 and wound up with a split decision.

San Ramon copped the opener when the Bees tripped the Walnut Creek team 36-31 in a game that was not decided until the final quarter.

The Knights nabbed the varsity tiff, 55-54, in overtime play.

It was even-steven in the opening period of the Bee game as each side wound up with 8 points on the scoreboard.

LAS LOMAS SURGED to a 20-17 halftime lead, only to have San Ramon come back to make it 26-all at the three-quarter mark.

In the final go the home club hit for 10 points while holding the visitors to 5, and that spelled the difference as San Ramon eked out the 36-31 win.

Tops in the scoring column for Walnut Creek was Forward Nick McGrath with 8 points (2 fg-2 ft) and Guard Bob Gomez, who also bagged 8, on four field goals.

IN THE VARSITY GAME it was a thriller that went into overtime play before the final score was posted.

San Ramon jumped to an early 7-4 lead, only to have Walnut Creek close the gap to 19-17 at the half.

It looked like a San Ramon win when they forged out in front, 38-31, at the three-quarter mark. Then the Knights put on a scoring splurge in the final quarter.

AS A MATTER OF record, Las Lomas was trailing 45-41 with two minutes to go when they bagged a field goal and capitalized on two tosses from the free throw line to bring the count to 45-all.

Just seconds before the final buzzer Forward Bill Wells of Las Lomas came close to being the goat when he fouled Bill Knudsen of San Ramon.

Knudsen was the goat, however, when he missed on his charity toss.

IN THE OVERTIME Wells took the hero's mantle when, with seconds on the clock and with Las Lomas trailing 54-53, he hit on a field goal that gave Las Lomas the win, 55-54, as time ran out.

In the winner's corner the top scorer was Doug Potter with 12 points, while teammates Bill Wells, Art Dalley, Frank Cox and Pete Otsrom had 8 points each.

New Snow, Old Friends And Skiing's Here Again

By VI WHITE

Now that new snow has blanketed the Sierras from a much needed storm, skiers are once more heading for their favorite slopes.

At Dodge Ridge last weekend wearing their new parkas were Sally and Dean Montagne of Walnut Creek and their friends Betty and Lloyd King with their two boys.

They found the slopes in good condition but admit that their legs were a bit stiff. The two feet of snow just covered the stumps and rocks making skiing a bit tricky, but kept all of us from going too fast at the beginning of the season.

All rope tows were running as well as the double chair lift. The newly installed Constam lift and Pomo lift need just a little more snow to operate. Although the official opening is this weekend, the coffee shop and ski shop were open.

GEORGE BAMBERGER and Skip Walters of the Sport Chalet in Pleasant Hill are doing a very good job of refinishing skis, and they have a complete ski department at their attractive store which is open nights too. Both fellows are interested in seeing that skiers are equipped properly with rentals or new gear.

The Mt. Diablo Ski Club is making plans for a New Years party at their lodge on Hiway 40. The building can house 20 skiers and is reached by snow trail from Donner Summit. Past President Grant Thorsen is at present skiing at Mt. Hood in Oregon where he first learned to ride the slippery slats.

The club's new president, Dick Walberg, and corresponding secretary Sonja Lewis were married in Reno last month, adding to the number of couples who have already married within the membership.

Speaking of that, a new club formed of married couples only is called the Ball and Chain Ski Club. President Gerald Little's wife, Sann, of Walnut Creek, was awarded third prize at the Bay Area Snow Queen Contest Ball held at the Sheraton Palace in San Francisco last Friday night. The dance was well represented by the 20 clubs who belong to the Bay Area Ski Federation.

GENERAL CHAIRMAN Marty Jacobs of Orinda agrees with other Oakland Ski Club members that the latest John Jay film presentation in Berkeley November 26 was a huge success. Prizes will be awarded at the January meeting to members selling the most tickets.

A new plastic toboggan type sled called the "Sno Plane" can be seen at Sports and Games on Locust Street. It looks like a child could have lots of fun in the snow with it — it's even big enough for two little tots. A swell Santa gift, as is the "Flying Saucer."

The "Sitz-Marks" of the Las Lomas Ski Club are planning a weekend trip by Greyhound bus to Yosemite January 27 right after school. They are anxious to have a big group and ask that students interested, either from Las Lomas or other schools, phone YE 4-4838 for information.

Presiding over the 35 members is Tom Leonard, assisted by vice president Ann Chamberlein, secretary Judy Knowlton and treasurer Jane Berry. Adult sponsors are Vere Butler and Bud Gadora.

RUTH AND JACK GROSS, formerly from Walnut Creek, and now living and working at Sugar Bowl, tell us that the new double chair lift to the top of Mt. Lincoln will be ready to operate soon. The lift is a mile and a half long and has an intermediate loading ramp part way up giving all skiers a run to their liking.

A convenient service is being started by Maggie and Milt Avila at Rainbow Tavern up Hiway 40 that may interest you. Your skis may be left there on your way home Sunday night and picked up again Friday night or Saturday the following weekend all repaired, rewaxed and ready to use. This should be fine for those who use the Donner area a lot.

JV High School Baseball Gets a Long-Needed Break

By ERWIN MATTSON

THE PRINCIPALS HELD A PREP LEAGUE meeting Tuesday, and with only meager information available at this writing, it seems certain that junior varsity baseball will receive a long-needed break.

A regular league schedule is in the offing, and in addition some practice games.

For the past few years the junior varsity schedule has been very limited and pretty much on a hit-or-miss basis.

Baseball activity has been widespread, with youth baseball on a terrific upswing, and a more liberal policy for junior varsity ball was needed.

Under the new setup each team will play every other club in the league, with Miramonte coming into play for the first time.

SPEAKING OF YOUTH BASEBALL, the Lafayette group has plans on tap for a big year and will announce definite plans in the near future as to league alignment and other details.

Fund-raising is one problem, and a good step in the right direction will be taken, with several money-raising projects in the offing.

One of the first items on the agenda is a survey to determine how many players are interested in the program.

A Babe Ruth League for 13, 14 and 15-year-olds will be a new addition, and will be put on a competitive basis, with playoffs set to take place with other sections.

The Junior Legion baseball program will be held as usual, so boys from 8 to 18 will have a chance to play ball.

Anyone interested in coaching, managing or helping in any way in youth baseball should get in touch with Gordon McNulty, who heads the organization for Lafayette. In Walnut Creek it's the Recreation Department, while Orinda-way it's that man Frank Isola.

LAST WEEK I WROTE AN ARTICLE relative to George Harrison, the boy from Acalanes via Orinda who made Uncle Sam's Olympic squad and then didn't get to compete.

Several phone calls have come to me regarding the matter — as I stated in my article I didn't know full particulars and will withhold final judgment until I do — more on this when I get to talk to George himself.

I still hold that there is plenty of politics played in the Olympic Games — that I do know.

For one thing, there are about as many officials on a free ride as there are athletes.

I had a little experience with Olympic Games committee myself one time, but that's a long story than can perhaps be told at a later time when space is available.

A WRESTLING TEAM has been started at Acalanes, and thus the Dons become the fourth school in the league with a group of grapplers.

Pacifica entered the mat sport last year, while Diablo and Pleasant Hill, along with Acalanes, got under way this year.

It is a very popular sport in the East and Midwest and has been spreading in the Bay Area. Oakland schools have been very active for several years, with Fremont High the kingpin.

Many parents are reluctant to let their sons take part, not realizing it's an entirely different game from the professional wrestling viewed as a rule via the television screen.

In the pros it's pretty much of an act, with parts well-rehearsed, and usually a villain and a hero. It appears to be a case of "no holds barred," with many of the participants pretty sinister characters.

In amateur wrestling it's pretty much of a science, and definitely on the level. Emphasis is placed on skill.

One gets points for taking an opponent off his feet, escaping from underneath, near falls, time on top, etc.

In event of no falls the points accumulated decide the winner. The object is to pin an opponent's shoulders, and no holds can be used solely for punishment.

As in swimming, every muscle in the body is used — and, like swimming, wrestling is a top body developer.

It promises to be a top prep sport, and chances are a county meet will be a reality — if not this year, then probably next.

'Bye for now — and don't get caught in a hammerlock.

Two Vikings Make All Conference First Team

Viking tackle Ray Bartels and end Bill Parnell made first team in the All-Coast Conference, and four of their East Contra Costa Junior College teammates got honorable mention.

One of the honorable mentions went to 18 year-old freshman Jim McMillan. He was an All-County halfback while playing for Pleasant Hill High, and was one of the top ground gainers this year.

The others were given to center Dan Young, left halfback Grover Garvin and fullback John Tackitt.

ANNOUNCEMENT was made by East Contra Costa Athletic Director Hugh Boschetti.

Other Coast Conference teams are Vallejo College, Monterey College, Hartnell College, Menlo College and San Jose Junior College.

East Contra Costa finished third in the league this year with 2 wins, 2 losses and one tie. Overall record was 5-3-1.

San Jose was the top team, and Menlo was second.

First stringer Ray Bartels played 60-minute football this season, and was outstanding in both offense and defense.

WEIGHING 215 pounds, and towering 6 feet 3, he didn't take up the grid game until he became a Viking. He graduated from Liberty High School in Brentwood.

Bill Parnell is a 21 year-old sophomore, and grad of Alhambra High in Martinez. He personally scored 34 points this season and specialized in extra point in receiving the pass and kicking the extra point.

He is taking a pre-optometry course at the junior college.

Jim McMillan is majoring in physical education. His record of 470 yards gained this season is tops for the team, and he averaged 4.6 yards per carry.

He's a rangy 6 foot 1, and packs 170 pounds.

DAN YOUNG is a Texas boy, and plans to attend school later on at Chico. Hes' a solid center with 200 pounds.

Grover Garvin is an 18 year-old sophomore, and former all-county quarterback for Antioch High School. He's lettering in both football and basketball.

Garvin was the top Viking scorer with 46 points. He gained 467 yards this year.

John Tackitt is a 19 year-old freshman, and grad of Pittsburg High. He was a strong player in high school, and is pouring his talents into football, basketball and a business course at East Contra Costa.

Don Bees Nab First Win— Varsity Loses

The Acalanes Bees scored their first victory of the season Tuesday when they played Livermore at Acalanes. The Don Babes did it, 36-21, with an impressive second half after trailing up to that point.

But in the varsity game two regulars were on the sideline — and that was too much for the Dons to overcome; they went down before the Livermore Cowboys, 48-23.

IN THE BEE game Coach Charles Eaton's Don Babes hung on in the first half in a see-saw battle.

Using a man-to-man defense, they trailed early in the game, 6-2, then changed to a tight zone and relied on a fast break to come up to a 17-15 count at the half, with the Cowboys leading.

Coach Eaton must have said the right thing at the right time at the halftime time-out session, as his charges came back to outscore the opposition 11-2 in the third quarter. In fact, Livermore didn't tally until there was less than a minute left in the quarter.

THE COWBOYS also had trouble with the hoop in the final seven minutes of play, as they scored but one field goal for a lonesome 2 points, while the Dons hit for a big 10 on five shots from the floor ,to cop a comfortable win, 36-21.

Don Lippert, a junior forward, was best in the scoring parade for Acalanes, with 9 points (4 fg — 1 ft).

IN THE VARSITY game Coach Ridley had his troubles before the opening whistle when he lost two regulars. John Phair went out via the measles route, while Rich Markstein was set down on disciplinary attention via the dean's office.

Minus two of their top scorers to date, the Dons had difficulty in getting going in the early part of the game and as a result trailed 13-25 at the half.

It was Livermore 36-21 at the third quarter post, and while the Dons came through with 13 points in the final quarter, Livermore had an even 12 — and the game's 48-34.

GUARD DON NELSON and Forward Bill Freeman did their best to pull the Dons up by their bootstraps — they had 12 and 10 points, respectively.

Guard Bob Doudbush was the heavy artillery for Livermore as he nailed down a nifty 18 points, with 12 of them coming on six field goals and the other 6 from the foul line, where he made six out of seven tries.

Ram Quint Drops 58-48 Set to Wolves

The Rams of Pleasant Hill High split even in a pair of games Tuesday with the San Ramon Wolves in the Rams' gym, but it was the Pleasant Hill Bee team which prevented a white-washing.

The local Bees raced to a 42-34 win behind the sharp shooting of guards Bill Locatteli, who potted 18 points, and Tom Larscheid, who hit for 14.

No such success in the varsity tilt, however, as the Rams ran into a buzz saw by the name of Bill McMillin and went down to defeat, 58-48.

McMillin, the visitors' talented forward, accounted for much more than the 10 point difference as he racked up 27 points during the evening, with 9 field goals and 9 free throws.

The game was tight in the early stages, as the Wolves held a slim two point margin at the end of the first quarter, 13-11. But in the middle of the second quarter Ram Coach Art Poulin had to pull his ace guard Bob Ritchie, who had collected four personal fouls.

That's when the tide changed, and the Wolves walked off the court at the end of the first half with a 32-17 advantage.

Ritchie got back in the ball game in the third quarter and gave the Ram quintet a shot in the arm as he bagged three quick field goals. But his third score proved costly as he fouled once more and was through for the night.

With Ritchie went the Rams' hopes for a victory. At the end of the third quarter San Ramon was out in front, 44-32. Although the locals hit for 16 points in the final canto, two more than their opponents, it wasn't nearly enough.

McMillin was superb that night. He hit from all over the court and missed on only three tries from the field.

Center Mike Mayne was tops for the losers with 13 points (6 fg, 1 ft), while Ritchie tallied 11 (5 fg — 1 ft) during his appreviated appearance.

Horsemen Pick New Directors

New directors of the Contra Costa County Horsemen's Association include Buck van Cleave of Lafayette, Ted Albro of Walnut Creek and Marie Doty of Lafayette.

The group recently elected Hub Badger of Martinez as president.

'Hazel Flagg' to Open Tonight

With a cast gathered from all points in the East Bay, the London Circle Players will open tonight and hold forth through January 19 with "Hazel Flagg," a hilarious musical saga with music by Jule Styne and lyrics by Bob Hilliard.

Under the direction of Ted Smalley, the free-wheeling musical presentation will be a re-telling of the story first told in the movie, "Nothing Sacred," starring Carole Lombard and Frederick March.

Reservation may be obtained by calling the box office, HIgate 4-0958, after 7 p.m.

Knight Sights Off in 44-33 Loss to Albany

The Albany Cougars went on the prowl Tuesday and proved too much to handle for the Las Lomas Knights.

The afternoon tilt, played at Albany, was the poorest game of the season for the Knights.

In the first half in particular Las Lomas played a loose brand of ball and seemed to have difficulty hitting the backboard, let alone the hoop.

Albany scored 13 points in the first quarter to start them on their way to a 44-33 win. The Cougars garnered 14 points in the second quarter, 11 in the third and 6 in the final stanza.

Las Lomas was behind the eight-ball at the half, trailing 27-15, after having tallied but five points in the opening quarter. The Knights got stronger as the game progressed, however, scoring 7 in the third quarter and 11 in the fourth.

In the scoring department guards Pete Ostrom and Doug Potter topped the list with 6 points apiece.

Don Ski Club Plans Weekend

Future activities of the Acalanes Ski Club were outlined by President Wally Marsh and Faculty Advisor Miss Nicholson at the recent club meeting.

First trip of the new year for the club will be a weekend at Twining Lodge starting January 18. Probable dates for the second and third trips are February 21-24 and March 16-17, President Marsh announced.

Class representatives were also elected at the meeting.

New Senior representatives are Brett Merner and Denis Comerford; Juniors — Karen Jeffries and Phil Branch; Sophomore—Michelle McKeegan and Peder Knudsen; Freshmen—Karen Miller and Bob Lockey.

March of Dimes To Open Office In Richmond

Contra Costa County's March of Dimes headquarters will officially open tomorrow at 1217 Macdonald Avenue, Richmond.

Open house will be from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., according to the county's March of Dimes Chairman, John Sheridan.

Sheridan invited all March of Dimes volunteers, chairmen and others who are interested in the fight against polio to visit the new headquarters on that day to meet the March of Dimes workers.

Coffee and doughnuts will be served and March of Dimes supplies will be given out to the chairmen.

Sheridan said many volunteers are needed to help with mailings, distribute posters, arrange special events, make radio and TV appearances, and serve in the annual Mothers' March Against Polio. He urged all who are interested to drop in to the headquarters office or to phone the March of Dimes at BEacon 4-5943.

"March of Dimes funds have helped develop a successful vaccine against polio," Sheridan said. "But the disease is not licked as long as a single man, woman or child still needs help in getting back to work, to school, or to household tasks.

"For many polio victims it is a long, hard fight — and we can lend a hand by raising the money they need for hospital care, therapy treatments, braces and other aids to their recovery."

Rodent Survey Begins in Contra Costa

A rodent survey was begun in Contra Costa County this week by the Health Department with the cooperation of the State Health Department, Bureau of Vector Control.

Richard Maynard of the State Health Department will work with the Sanitation Division on this project.

This survey will help to determine the rodent problem in the area. Recommendations will be made as to what can be done to reduce the number of rodents.

The project will begin in the Antioch area and will be continued to other areas of the County. These surveys serve as a check to warn of any increase in the rodent population in any section of the county.

Engineers Pick Ross President

Local engineers recently named their group the Mt. Diablo Chapter of the California Society of Professional Engineers, and elected officers.

Sixty-five men elected as president William Ross, an electrical engineer.

Aetley Flenner, Orinda electrical engineer, was chosen vice president, and Gordon Tillson, Orinda civil engineer, is state director.

Joseph Castelan is secretary, Bennet Tow of Lafayette is treasurer, and Hal Butyback, Leslie Sharp and Edward Boyer are members of the executive board.

Said Ross, "The local chapter becomes one of the 18 recently organized in California.

"These chapters all function at the state level through the California Society of Professional Engineers and the C.S.P.E. in turn functions at the national level through the National Society of Professional Engineers.

"The National Society of Civil Engineers seeks to advance the public welfare through the exercise of the creative functions of the profession, the advancement of the professional, social and economic interests of the professional engineer, the promotion of high standards of engineering education, the improvement of public relations and the cultivation of public appreciation of the work of professional engineers," he added.

New School Sites Will Cost Millions

Thirty-four school districts in Contra Costa County will spend about $200 millions in the next decade for new sites, according to the Taxpayers Association.

The Association recommended that a "comprehensive study" be made of the need for new ites, and that a plan showing those sites be completed.

It stated, "It is imperative that school districts obtain at the present time those sites which will be needed in the future, so that they will not be forced to purchase such sites at greatly increased prices through condemning already developed properties.

It also recommended that "... a section be designated in the office of the Superintendent of Schools which would have the responsibility of consulting and advising with the school districts in planning school construction programs and adjusting the school site master plan."

GAS CAP

If for any reason you lose the gas cap on your car, be sure it is replaced with the correct type cap, cautions the California State Automobile Association. A vented gasoline tank cap is necessary to insure proper "breathing."
